'I Have Returned'—Fulfilling a promise he made more than two years ago, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, in FIRST ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPH to reach here, broadcasts from Leyte island to residents of the Philippine Islands: "I have returned." He called on them to aid the American invasion forces. As MacArthur speaks, Filipino President Sergio Osmeana, takes a refreshing drink from a canteen.

Navy Fliers Raid Manila

PEARL HARBOR, Oct. 30 (AP)—The victorious American Navy has launched new aerial attacks against Manila, Tokyo reported today, after sinking or damaging 58 Japanese ships in one of history's greatest naval triumphs.

The Third and Seventh U. S. Fleets definitely sank 24 Japanese warcraft, including four aircraft carriers and two battleships, in last week's naval action off the Philippines, Adm. Nimitz announced.

Thirteen more Japanese craft, including a battleship, were damaged so badly they may have sunk, and 21 other warcraft, including six battleships, were damaged.

The total—at least 500,000 tons—is more warcraft than Japan lost in all four preceding great battles.

American forces spent six warships for a victory by which, Nimitz said, "the Japanese fleet has been decisively defeated and routed."

Dispatches from the Philippines say, however, American personnel casualties were considerable.

In addition, the 10,000-ton Australian cruiser Australia was damaged.

(Tokyo radio reported, without Allied confirmation, that 200 U. S. carrier planes staged three raids on Manila and Clark airfield Saturday.

(Japanese aircraft, said another Tokyo broadcast, Sunday began attacking an American task force, including four aircraft carriers, in Lamon Bay, on the east coast of Luzon, opposite Manila.)

Nimitz' 1100-word communique said that "amplifying reports, although still subject to revision as more information is received, indicate an overwhelming victory . . . the second battle of the Philippine Sea ranks as one of the major sea battles of World War II in the Pacific."

Possibly only two Japanese ships escaped undamaged from the debacle.

The Philippine battle involved more than the 248 ships engaged at Jutland, although exact figures cannot be given.

HOW JAPS GOT IT—This map shows 10 moves w hich proved fatal for three Jap fleet units in battle of the Philippines. Enemy fleet units (1) wer e detected moving northward from Singapore, one group (2) moving through Sibuyan Sea, another (3) through Sulu Sea. They were attacked by (4) U. S. Third Fleet aircraft while (5) Jap shore-based planes attacked Yank carriers. A third Jap force (6) was spotted moving southward from For mosa and was scattered by (7) Third Fleet units. Seventh Fleet units (8) attacked remants of Jap Sibuyan force, chasing them back through San Bernadino strait and (9) in a night action, destroy ed the Sulu force. Third Fleet aircraft (10) continued battle against Japs attempting to flee the area.

MacARTHUR'S 10-DAY SWEEP HUGE SUCCESS

By C. YATES McDANIEL

MACARTHUR HEADQUARTERS, Oct. 30 (AP)—Ten days after he waded ashore, Gen. MacArthur today controlled two-thirds of strategic Leyte island and had a stranglehold on Samar as the retreating Japanese took to the hills or sought to escape by barge through waters patrolled by American PT boats.

MacArthur said the liberation of 1,500,000 Filipinos on the two central Philippine islands was virtually completed. The natives attended Sunday church services and the children were back at school. Their lives rapidly took on a degree of normalcy.

MacArthur announced in his Monday communique that his men controlled 1800 square miles on Leyte alone and the remaining enemy garrisons on Leyte and Samar were isolated and helpless.

They can be destroyed at will, he said.

(An unconfirmed Tokyo broadcast heard in Melbourne said 40 American transports convoyed by cruisers and destroyers were sighted yesterday heading for Leyte, and added: "The battle for the Philippines is about to begin in earnest.")

American First Cavalry troops, by seizing Carigara town on Carigara Bay, have eliminated the enemy's only effective point of reinforcement for the Leyte valley, which has been bottled up by the Yanks with brilliant guerilla aid.

All organized resistance in the valley appeared to have ceased. Most of Gen. Shiro Makino's 16th Division were scattering into the hills.

Fifth Air Force fighter pilots operating off Leyte airstrips shot down 18 planes yesterday in breaking up harassing Japanese air raids on shipping and installations.

5th in New Gains Near Bologna

ROME, Oct. 30 (AP)—American and British troops of the Fifth Army have made new gains in the mountains southeast of Bologna, Allied headquarters announced today.

The Allied communique noted some improvement in weather conditions.

American infantry supported by tanks attacked the Germans north of Marano.

Nazis' Hungary Escape Line Cut

LONDON, Oct. 30 (AP)—The last rail escape route for Germans in northeastern Hungary was blocked by the Russians today with the capture of Csap on the upper Tizsa river.

Berlin reported further Russian gains in the liquidation of an estimated 100,000 Nazis pinned against the Baltic sea.

Csap, junction of four rail lines at the southwestern edge of liberated Ruthenia, was occupied yesterday by troops of Gen. Petrov's Fourth Ukraine army

1st Grecian Fight Won by British

ROME, Oct. 30 (AP)—British troops have captured Kozane, 58 miles southwest of Salonika, after the first sharp battle with retreating Germans in northern Greece, Allied headquarters announced today.

Nazis Caught In Pockets

By WILLIAM FRYE

LONDON, Oct. 30 (AP)—The German stand in the southwestern lowlands had been cut into four dwindling pockets today and German forces below the Maas river were disintegrating under a concentrated air attack and the drive of Allied armies racing to the Moerdijk escape bridge only six miles away.

The four pockets were below the Maas where the chief resistance center of Breda had been taken; on Beveland Island; on flooded Walcheren Island, virtually cut off by a Canadian drive to within 3000 yards of the causeway connecting with Beveland, and a tiny 6-mile long, 4-mile wide corner of Belgium south of the Schelde.

North of Tilburg a British column lashed out from Loon Op Zand and seized the village of Kaatsheuvel, only three miles south of the Maas, and drove to within two miles of Waspik to the northwest, only three miles from the Geertruidenberg span across the Maas.

The drive across flooded lowlands, laced by canals and dikes, in the campaign to clear the Schelde approaches to the Allied harbor of Antwerp, was gaining momentum and approaching a conclusion after some of the most difficult fighting of the war.

An enemy counter-thrust launched too late to save the garrisons north of Antwerp grew into a determined attack, supported by tanks, artillery and planes, and gained ground against a stubborn American defense.

The Germans swept through the town Liesel and reached Asten, 4000 yards from Meijel.

On other sectors of the western front there was relatively little action except for teh air forces, which were out in strength attacking both strategic and tactical targets throughout the Rhineland.

To the south in France, Allied ground troops made slight gains in the Luneville sector, taking the village of Fraipertuis and holding it against determined counterattacks.

VOTE NO ON QUESTION 3

Massachusetts citizens in 1938 approved biennial Legislative Sessions by a majority of $50,000 votes. The legislature now seeks to return the Commonwealth to annual sessions. Six years of experience have proved biennials to be superior. There is not one single sound reason why the decision of the people should now be reversed.

MRS. JOSEPHINE LOPRESTI, GIRLS JANICE, CAMILLE
She Knows There's a War On. Wins $50 Bond

'War On' Prize To Army Wife

A Saugus mother of three, whose husband is "somewhere in France or Holland" and who has four brothers in the service as well, is the winner of the $50 War Bond awarded to the writer of the best answer to the overworked query: "Don't You Know There's A War On?"

Of the hundreds of letters which poured into the Boston American, the one written by Mrs. Josephine L. LoPresti, 28, of Main st., Saugus, was considered as outstanding in its thought and presentation by the judges of the competition.

Her letter, published in the Boston American last Oct. 14, read:

"I had that question barked at me the other day while I was trying to do some early Christmas shopping with my three children. I hesitated and my nine-year-old daughter raised tear-filled eyes and said: 'Mummy, never mind toys. Buy us War Stamps and maybe Santa Claus will bring Daddy home to us for Christmas.'

"My husband was in France when last we heard—six endless weeks ago.

"I know by her shamed face there was one clerk who will think twice before asking that question again."

Mrs. LoPresti was in her modest home with her three children, Janice, 9, Camille, 6, and Robert 3, when a Boston American reporter entered to present her with her $50 bond.

"Gee," she said happily. "This is wonderful. I'm so grateful because I never thought I would win after reading some of the fine letters which were printed in your paper. Thank you ever so much."

Her husband, Pvt. Joseph LoPresti, a former heating engineer, was one of the first married men with children in Saugus to enlist in the armed forces. He went overseas last May.

Incidentally, she has heard from him since writing her prize-winning letter.

She and her children miss him greatly but all are proud of him and the service flag which hangs in their front window.

"I have four brothers and five nephews in the service, too," Mrs. LoPresti said. "They're all well and we're proud that they can serve their country.

"Yes, we all know there's a war on."

$10,000 Fire In Everett

A two-alarm fire, destroying a Halloween-decorated hall, in the business section of Everett, blocked all traffic at 10 o'clock this morning when flames swept the 3-story Elks building on Church st.

A fireman, John Ahearn, was hurt and fire apparatus was called from Malden, Chelsea, Revere and Somerville.

Damage is estimated at $10,000 by Everett Fire Chief James J. Evans.

He said the fire started in walls on the front side of the building in the basement, eating its way through partitions.

Past Exalted Ruler Joseph McGonagle discovered the fire as he was leaving the building.

Planes in Sea Hunt For 4 Off Beverly

Navy and Coast Guard craft, as well as Coast Guard planes, were searching coastal waters today for four men, residents of Lynn and Saugus, who put to sea from Beverly during the storm yesterday in a 26-foot cabin speed boat.

Arthur M. Stead, 28, of Newhall st., Saugus, had just bought the craft and had no sailing experience. With him were his father, Arthur P. Stead, 55, of Holland ave., Lynn; his cousin, Clyde, of School st., Saugus, and Joseph Thistle of Broadway, Lynn, owner of an auto wrecking company there.

Thistle and Clyde Stead were known to have had experience with boats. They and the others had worked on the craft, the "Bold Pat," all yesterday morning at the Jubilee Yacht Club, Beverly.

When they put out in it they intended to take it to Saugus. It was stated at the club today that experienced sailing men had advised the four not to dare the trip because of the wind and high seas, but the Steads and Thistle felt certain they could make it.

Wives of the men became fearful as night fell without word from them. The Coast Guard at Gloucester sent a picket boat out in the high seas. A surf boat joined the search from the Nahant Coast Guard station.

After an all night search had proved fruitless, the Coast Guard sent out two planes from its Salem air base. The Navy also joined in the hunt.

At the Jubilee Yacht Club it was reported the men had been working in the hull of the craft, making repairs to remedy leaks.

It was feared the strong northeaster which was whipping up huge seas at the time the four left Beverly had driven them out to sea or that engine trouble had rendered them at the mercy of the storm.

Armed Youths' Car Holdup Fails

Frederick C. Bacon, 58, of Brewster ter., Brookline, reported to police today that two young men, one apparently carrying a gun, attempted to hold him up last night while he was seated in his parked auto in front of the New England Hospital for Women in Roxbury.

He said the youth he believed was carrying the gun climbed into the rear seat while the other got behind the wheel and started the car. As a nunidentified man approached, Bacon said he leaped from the machine and the pair started away but abandoned the car after driving it a short distance and sideswiping a parked auto.

Snow Just Missed Hub

The only reason Bostonians and surbanites didnt have to shovel snow today was that yesterdays howling northeaster dumped most of it at sea, the weather bureau reported.

Snow pelted the waters off Nantucket and winds as high as 60 miles an hour whipped up high seas from the island to the coast of Maine. The storm left from two to three inches of snow in northern Maine.

Cape Cod was lashed by gale-velocity winds drove huge seas ahead of them atop a high tide of 10.6 feet.

"It was a very energetic storm," said G. Harold Noyes, government meteorologist.

Gusts of 40 miles an hour were recorded in Boston by the weather bureau. Higher winds struck Winthrop, Beachmont and Wollaston, necessitating a re-routing of traffic from the waterfront in all three communities.

Try This New Jap Food And Your Hunger Vanishes!

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30 (AP)—The German Transocean News Agency told today ofa "wonderful new food, concocted of rotten wood, sawdust and starch, seasoned with sunshine," which has been created by Japanese chemists.

The news agency dispatch, recorded by the Federal Communications Commission, described the process as follows:

"The mould spreading on rotting wood is planted in sawdust. Later, a little starch is added, and the whole mass is steamed for a while. When it has gone into fermentation, it is dried in the sun. The product is edible and can be mixed with flour to make noodles."

Another Japanese food development described by Transocean told of a method by which rations are "prepared which have only one-tenth the weight and one-eighth the volume of an ordinary day's ratior."

One week on this kind of diet leads to a point where the persons eating it ". . . no longer complain of hunger," the dispatch said.

Reveal PAC Red Rule Plot

By RAY RICHARDS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30—A formal report by the House Un-American Activities Committee charged, in effect that the New Deal's Political Action Committee plans a revolutionary coup on election day to place the American people under a Communistic dictatorship. The recent history of Russia and Germany show it could be done, according to comment on the report from Sen. Robert R. Reynolds, North Carolina anti-New Deal Democrat.

The true power in the nation could be welded by Communists using a so-called Democratic administration as a "front" for four years, whereupon the Communist government could be established openly, the Senator claimed.

Deception of a majority of voters by many false fronts directed by the 83 per cent Communist majority of the Political Action Committee was presented as the major strategy of the attempted coup by the House committee's report.

Pointing out that Sidney Hillman, chairman of the Political Action Committee and dictator of important procedure at the Democratic National Convention, pursued a consistently dictatorial policy as a labor leader, the report asserted that this year's election stands for the Communist party's supreme bid for power in its quarter-century history in the United States.

The report said that the Political Action Committee, which claims to represent organized labor as a branch of the Congress of Industrial Organizations, is convinced that elections in the United States can be bought with "big money."

It charged that in behalf of the Political Action Committee the arch New Dealer, Atty. Gen. Francis Biddle, is winking at the Hatch Act and the Smith-Connally Act

In fact, the document sets forth, a majority of the top officials of the national office of the Political Action Committee are persons who left the New Deal government to join in directing the Political Action Committee and one of its fronts, the National Citizens' Political Action Committee.

It is asserted by the report that the National Citizens' Political Action Committee, is "the major Communist front organization of the moment."

The entire movement is destructive of true trade unionism, it is claimed.

The report declares the Political Action Committee is carrying out to the letter the injunction of Earl Browder, high commander of American Communists and at present a vociferous advocate of a fourth term, to bore from within a major political party, and this time the Democratic party is the chosen instrument. The report comments:

"Sidney Hillman's public career in this country during the past 30 years readily suggests that certain European countries offer a preview of what is in store for America if Hillman and his cohorts achieve their ambition of dominating a major political party in the United States."

Sen. Reynolds recalled that 200,000 Bolsheviks established a Communist dictatorship over 170,000,000 Russians in 1917, and that an even smaller number of Nazis seized the German government in 1933.

"A minority actually can accomplish the tremendous coup that the Political Action Committee is attempting in next month's ballot," Sen. Reynolds said.

The House committee report stated that Hillman ran his union as an utter labor dictator, dictated the nomination of Sen. Harry S. Truman for vice-president, and is now dictating that workers contribute to a huge fourth term campaign fund and vote for the New Deal or go jobless.

Bong Bags 3 More at Leyte

By RICHARD BERGHOLZ

LEYTE AIRFIELD, Philippines, Oct. 29 (Delayed) (AP)—A Japanese plane destroyed itself while trying to escape the deadly guns of Richard I. Bong, helping America's top ranking fighter act to run his string of victories to 33—the last trio bagged during his first 72 hours in the Philippines.

The Poplar, Wis., pilot shot down his 31st less than three hours after he arrived.

He got his 32nd this morning without firing a shot and his 33rd a few minutes later.

Maj. Bong

Bong roared down Leyte field and into the air just as three Japanese fighter - bombers swept toward this airbase. He threw his Lightning into a steep climb and went after the last Japanese plane, which hadn't yet dropped its bomb.

Jockeying to get out of the way of Bong's guns, the Japanese pilot pulled into a climb and at the same time jettisoned his bomb to gain more speed. The bomb struck the tail of the Nipponese plane, and tore it off without exploding.

The tailless plane crashed into the water.

Turning to one of the other two, Bong picked it up after another Lightning pilot had missed a pass. After a vicious dogfight Bong sent the Jap plane aflame into the sea only after one of the two engines on his own Lightning had been shot out, forcing him to come in on one engine for the first time in many combat missions.

PLANES BOMB MUNICH

"We Handle Everything Suburban"

LEE'S SUMMIT, MISSOURI October 14th, 1944

Mr. S.O.Barnes
4425 Vinwood Ave
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Clarence;

Some time ago you were asking me about the time that your friend Truman joined the Ku Klux Klan, now I have your letter of recent date asking be more about it. Well it was some time ago since he stopped at my house and persuaded me to let him take me over to Hickman Mills where they were having a kind of protest meeting because they heard he was denouncing them. As I remember he told me on that trip that he took the oath from John R.Jones at the Baltimore Hotel and that some way the Pendergast bunch had gotten on to it and that he had to deny that he had ever joined Any way his purpose was to get me to quiet that bunch down and promise what ever it took to get them not to roll him at the general election that was only a few days off.

Well I had to do a lot of talking and excusing to get them satisfied. Any way it helped out but it didnt do a thing to me I got much the worst of it with the wrath of the political machines on my back but some way he kept them satisfied. In other words that was my reason for heading the organization that went out and defeated him for his second term as Eastern judge, two years later, and I still got the wrath of the Pendergast machine, which lasted for many years.

I was always very sorry that I did not keep his aplication card when I saw it with a lot of others at the head-quarters that was then stationed in the Continental building there in Kansas City. I dont know what became of it but I have since often wished I had it.

Well I suppose if he has now gotten such a break that he may some day be Vice President of their great U.S. Of ours, that all will be forgiven.

Sorry you didnt come down to our special meeting we had here for Sen. Donnelly last Wednesday. Drop in when you are out this way at any time

With best wishes, I am

Youre very truly,

Todd M George

"QUIET THEM DOWN"—That's what Todd M. George, Lee's Summit, Mo., real estate dealer, said Sen. Truman asked him to do after the "Pendergast bunch had gotten on" that Truman joined the Ku Klux Klan. In the above letter, George quotes Truman as saying he took the Klan oath from John R. Jones and later was forced to deny his membership at the insistence of Pendergast, Missouri political boss.

FD Maps End Of Campaign

By HOWARD FLIEGER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30 (AP)—President Roosevelt, back from a 2000-mile bid for 128 vital electoral votes, today mapped the windup of his re-election campaign.

He is to travel to New England for at least one more major speech before he goes home to cast his fourth-term ballot.

Although he hasn't said so, he will probably be in Boston Saturday, and undoubtedly there will be other appearances during this closing campaign week.

He told a Ft. Wayne, Ind., audience Saturday that he is out to correct Republican "misrepresentations"—and he intends to do more of it before the polls open a week from tomorrow.

There was continued speculation that Mr. Roosevelt might precede his to Boston trip with another thrust to the West — this time to Cleveland and possibly Detroit. A Cleveland speech long has been talked in campaign circles but White House sources said last night no definite decision has been made for the interval between now and the week-end.

Tompkins Gets U. S. Treasury Post Here

John D. Tompkins today was appointed regional director of the Treasury's Procurement Division in New England, according to a Washington announcement by Ernest L. Olrich, assistant to Secretary of the Treasury, Henry Morgenthau.

As chief of Region I, with headquarters in Boston, Tompkins will have charge of Lend-Lease supplies and all consumer goods turned back on the market as surplus property.

Dewey Moves To Aid Voters

By LEO W. O'BRIEN

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 30 (INS)—New York's Republican-controlled legislature convened today to pass a voting hour bill which may, in event of a close election, affect the disposition of the state's 47 electoral votes.

Gov. Dewey summoned the legislature into special session despite Democratic claims that extension of the voting hours from 7 to 9 p. m. will enable thousands of Roosevelt voters among the day workers to cast their ballots.

The Republican nominee announced he favored the longer voting day because it will obviate the necessity of war workers leaving their tasks to vote, and because the large number of new voters and inexperienced election officials may slow down the balloting.

Republican leaders insist the two extra hours will not hurt their chances of carrying New York state. They contend that the large New York city registration, in excess of 3,200,000, represents an outpouring of anti-New Dealers and independents who are behind the Dewey-Bricker ticket.

Bricker Asks Tax Cut to Aid Jobs

FLINT, Mich., Oct. 30 (AP)—Gov. Bricker declared today that a reduction in rates of taxation would facilitate the payment of a federal government debt expected to aggregate $300,000,000,000 whenthe war ends.

The Republican party is committed to such a program, the nominee for Vice-President added in a prepared speech released by his campaign staff.

"We want taxes reduced so that people will be able to work more for themselves and less for their government," he said. "We want taxes reduced also, that venture money will flow into business and provide good jobs."

McGrath Case Trial Delayed

BROCKTON, Oct. 30—Scheduled trial of Mrs. Bertha Pina and Jack Popes on charges connected with their discovery of the body of 10-year-old Frances McGrath in the Norwood woods last June was delayed in superior court here today as attorneys argued over legality of the indictmetn against them.

At first stared with being accessories after the fact of the murder of the child, daughter of John McGrath, former Boston City Councilor, Lopes and Mrs. Pina had been secretly indicted on another charge of conspiracy.

The government charges that the Scituate cuople, parked in a lover's lane in Norwood, discovered the body of Frances McGrath several days before Lopes finally led police to the scene, withholding the information in fear of their trust being discovered.

Service Vote Hits 100,000

By FRANK REILLY

One hundred thousand Massachusetts service men and women have already cast their votes for candidates for state and national office, Secretary of State Frederic W. Cook announced today as Democratic and Republican opponents concentrated their election efforts in the Greater Boston area.

JOURNEY'S END—Richard Aldrich, 8, of Braintree, is home today after taking an unscheduled trip to New York, when he boarded the wrong train in South Station. Richard, shopping with his mother, got lost in the terminal and climbed aboard a New York bound train, mistaking it for the Braintree local. His distracted mother notified Boston police who had their New York brethren locate him. International News Photo

Mayor Tobin is devoting this evening to an appeal for votes in the Dorchester-Roxbury area, with rallies at the headquarters of Thomas J. Roberts Post, American Legion, in Park st. and at Jeremiah Burke High School in Geneva ave. Earlier in the evening the Mayor will speak in Brockton.

Lt. Gov. Cahill, his Republican opponent for election as Governor carries his campaign activity into Malden, Cambridge and Belmont, with rallies in each community.

Of the 100,000 service people whose absentee ballots have already been received by election officials of the Commonwealth 19,136 are those of Bostonians, it was announced at City Hall today.

These military ballots are stored in vaults at City Hall and will be placed in the polling boxes of the service voters' home precincts on the morning of Nov. 7. As a result, the first votes to be cast in Boston that day will be those of men now defending the nation on faraway battle fronts.

A total of 38,085 applications have been received from Bostonians absent in the armed services and officials of the municipal election commission are hopeful that all of these will have been returned before 8 p. m. on election day, since they cannot be counted after that time.

Chairman William A. Motley, Jr., of the Boston election commission, today advised parents of service mgen that under the law members of the armed forces can register as voters in this Commonwealth until Saturday.

Speaking at rallies in Gardner, Lynn, Lawrence and Malden, and at a reception in his honor at the Parker House, Mayor Tobin promised his support of legislation to improve working conditions, wages and opportunities for workers. He charged his opponent with using "hatchet men" in the campaign.

The Republican candidate, meanwhile, continued his demands that Mayor Tobin discuss his record with the voters.

Referring to the Strayer report on the Boston school system, Cahill asserted that "the plain fact is thousands of children are not properly safeguarded should a fire break out.

"Many, if not most of these conditions must have existed during Tobin's years on the Boston School Committee," Cahill added. "I now ask you, did he care enough to know about the conditions in the schools? If he did, then how could he have neglected to do something about it?"

Equally as active as the gubernatorial aspirants were the candidates for attorney general, Councilor Clarence E. Barnes, Republican, and former Lt. Gov. Francis E. Kelly, Democrat.

Barnes told Revere Post, VFW, that he plans immediately to open a department to take care of legal problems of veterans and their families.

"The widows and orphans of the men who gave their lives in the service of our country will receive proper guidance, sound legal advice and immediate action in working out individual problems," Barnes asserted.

Kelly charged Barnes three times voted in the legislature against allowing women to vote, and now "has the audacity to ask women voters, who are in the majority, to vote for him.

"The public record of my opponent is so poor that the voters have defeated him on four occasions for attorney general, and will defeat him for the fifth time Nov. 7," Kelly predicted.

CONFESSES KILLING INFANT SHE NEVER HAD—Pauline Kurpowic, 23, of Dearbon, Mich., presents a tragic face to the camera after telling Detroit police that the strangled, badly-burned body of an infant found in a creek near her home was her own illegitimate child. She told police she strangled and burned the child because she "didn't want it." Examination by a physician disclosed, however, that the girl never had a baby. Police believe she made up the whole story and held her for observation. International News Photo

40 Schools in Quest For History Awards

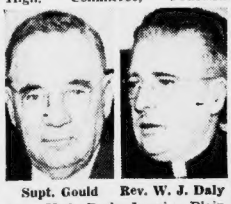
Forty Boston high schools, both public and parochial, today were enrolled in the William Randolph Hearst National American History Awards competition as the first week of registration ended.

Enrollment of all high schools was assured as the students began preparations for the local tests to determine the contestants for the national prizes totaling $25,000 in war bonds.

Parochial schools registered are: St. Patrick's, Cathedral, St. Joseph's, Perpetual Help for Girls, Perpetual Help for Boys, Holy Trinity, Notre Dame Academy, Roxbury, Gate of Heaven, SS. Peter and Paul's, St. Augustine's, Nazareth, Fitton, St. Margaret's, St. Gregory's, St. Thomas', St. Columbkiles, Mt. St. Joseph Academy, Boston College High, Presentation, Notre Dame Academy, Back Bay.

Public schools are:

English, Public Latin, Girls' Latin, Brighton, Charlestown, Dorchester Boys', Dorchester Girls', East Boston, Girls' High, Commerce, Practical Arts, Hyde Park, Jamaica Plain, Jeremiah E. Burke High for Girls, Mechanic Arts, Roslindale, Roxbury Memorial for Boys, South Boston, Brandeis Vocational, Roxbury Memorial for Girls, and Boston Trade School.



Supt. Gould Rev. W. J. Daly

While the pupils were refreshing their knowledge of American history, a committee of educators worked to complete the examination questions to be answered by the contestants.

Committee members are Dr. Arthur L. Gould, public school superintendent; Rev. William J. Daly, diocesan supervisor of parochial schools, and Prof. Francis A. Smith of Girls' High School, president of the Council of History Teachers of Boston schools.

On Nov. 30 the Boston elimination tests will be held to determine the students who will represent the city in the nation-wide competition in December. In addition to answering 20 questions, each contestant will submit an essay of not more than 250 words on a selected subject in American history.

Winners in the national contest will share in prizes to be distributed in 13 key cities where the competitions are sponsored by the Hearst newspapers.

First prize for the nation will be $2000 in bonds; second, $1000; third, $500; fourth to ninth, $100 each, and $50 bonds to each of the next 31 competitors.

Boston contestants will be eligible for additional prizes ranging from $1000 in bonds for first place to others of $25 each. A set of history books, valued at $100, will be presented to the first prize winner's school library.

Normal 2-Day Supply Of New Cars Remains

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30 (INS)—The OPA declared the nation has only 20,000 unused automobiles left for rationing, pointing out the supply is less than normally was required for two days in peacetime.

OPA said the quota of new cars for rationing in November will be only 3000, with a regional and national reserve of 600. The quota is the same as those for September and October.

Walsh Supports Entire Ticket

After long silence, U. S. Sen. David I. Walsh today was solidly aligned behind both the national and state Democratic tickets. He is expected to make several campaign speeches.

The senior Bay State Senator, before a Lawrence gathering, heartily welcomed his colleague, Sen. Truman, candidate for Vice President, but carefully avoided mentioning the name of President Roosevelt.

Of Truman, the Clinton Senator said: "Harry Truman is a real, honest-to-God man and a mighty able Senator."

Tragedy!

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (INS)—Police said today 4-four-year-old William Drach, who was was found dead with his hands tied behind his back in the basement of a Bronx apartment house last night, was strangled accidentally by his brother, Robert, 8 while the boys were playing "Commando."

Report Nazis Arrest Five Steel Magnates

LONDON, Oct. 30 (INS)—The London Daily Express reported that Gestapo Chief Himmler had arrested five prominent German steel industrialists in a new purge.

The report said Dr. Franz Haniel, Albert Voegler, Peter Kloeckner, Dr. Springorum and Herr Lueg had been seized on charges of treason and attempted sabotage of war work.

Sylvia Sidney Back in Films After Quitting in Pout

By ROBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 30 (AP)—The girl who left Hollywood with a pout was back today with a smile.

She calls herself the "adjusted" Sylvia Sidney.

"The trouble with me," the one-time movie-misanthrope confessed, "was that I was unhappy wherever I was in those days—or should I say maladjusted? It had nothing to do with Hollywood but I blamed it on pictures."

In slacks and blouse, her brown hair tossed carelessly back from a piquant face, she looked like a spritely gamin.

"It has to happen," she observed seriously, "if you have the misfortune to become terribly successful at the age of 20 and make as much money as I did. You're bound to be unhappy.

Now 34, Miss Sidney was 16 when she first clicked on Broadway in "Crime." Through the last decade her film successes included "Street Scene," "An American Tragedy," "Dead End," "Fury" and other important pictures.

Her first marriage, to Publisher Bennett Cerf, ended in divorce. Her second, to Actor Luther Adler, father of her 5-year-old son Judy, is slated for the same end.

"I came back this time," she said, "because of Judy's health. The doctors wanted him away from the eastern winter."

SYLVIA SIDNEY
Returns to Films "Adjusted"

She resumes her film career opposite James Cagney in "Blood on the Sun." The role, that of a jewel-loving Eurasian, will be a departure for her.

"I was always taking a rap or getting pushed around in my pictures," she said, "but those days are over now."

One-Man Rampage Wins Him Congressional Medal

ROME, Oct. 30 (AP)—A one-man rampage against strongly entrenched enemy troops in his first front-line action won for Pvt. James H. Mills, Ft. Meade, Fla., the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Preceding a platoon down a draw to reach a Nazi strongpoint, Mills advanced 300 yards. A machine gun only five yards away fired at him. He killed the gunner with one shot. The assistant gunner surrendered.

Mills advanced again and saw a German pulling the firing pin on a hand grenade. He made the German drop the grenade and surrender, and killed another Nazi who tried to throw the grenade.

Mills then came under the direct fire of an enemy machine gun, two machine pistols and three rifles at a range of 15 feet. He simply charged, firing his Garand rifle from his hip. His charge so astonished the enemy all six of them surrendered.

Near the end of the draw a machine-gunner 20 yards distant opened fire. Mills, without cover and with bullets hitting within inches of him, killed the gunner with a single shot. Two enemy infantrymen near by threw quick shots at him and fled. Mills killed one of them with a single shot.

When the rest of the platoon came up they found that assaulting the main enemy position probably would involve heavy casualties. Mills volunteered to cover the advance.

He stood up in full view of the Germans, shouted insults at them and fired his rifle. Bullets buzzed all around. When his weapon was empty, he jumped into a draw, reloaded and climbed out. He repeated this four times.

His platoon slipped undetected down a ditch and assaulted the German position. Twenty-two Germans were captured without a single casualty among the Americans.

30,000 Volunteers Launch Fund Drive

Aiming at a goal of $7,650,000 to meet the 1945 needs of 267 Red Feather services, 22 National War Fund organizations and American War Community Services, Inc., an army of 30,000 volunteer workers today began intensive solicitation of 53 Greater Boston communities in support of the United War Fund campaign.

The volunteers comprise persons from all walks of life- society matrons and war-working girls in dungarees, debutantes and stenographers, business and professional men, and members of the armed forces.

Preceding start of the active campaign, Henry A. Laughlin, general chairman of the Greater Boston United War Fund, and an Army and Navy chaplain made a radio appeal over Station WEEI.

"In order to help all, we must ask the help of all," Chairman Laughlin said.

Capt. Roy Lewis, senior chaplain of the First Naval District, and Lt. Col. D. H. Hickey, senior chaplain of Harbor Defenses, told how servicemen are depending on the successful outcome of the drive, asserting it aids their peace of mind to know that these fund agencies stand ready to help their families at home.

Campaign headquarters at 17 Court st. announced the first retail store to top its quota was Jay's, Inc., with 94 per cent of its employes pledged at the start of solicitation this morning. Individual drives got under way today in many industrial plants and business establishments.

A crowd estimated at 400,000 lined downtown streets yesterday afternoon to witness the three-mile long parade which heralded today's official campaign opening. The gala parade, with more than 7500 in the line, featured numerous floats and bands. Among the marchers were units representing all branches of the armed forces, the Massachusetts State Guard, Women's Defense Corps, many United War Fund services and numerous civic, veterans' and high school organizations.

Fund officials acknowledged the following individual subscriptions of $500 and over:

Francis A. Countway	$12,000
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Francis Adams	7,500
Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kennedy	2,500
Lt. Richard McC. Grandin	1,500
Miss Emily W. McKibbin	1,300
Lt. Com. and Mrs. Charles F. Adams, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Mott	1,200
Mrs. Russell Gray; Mrs. Alvan T. Simonds	1,000
Borgo Serapunkoff	800
Mrs. Samuel S. Drury	600
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kane Cobb	515
Mrs. Arthur T. Cabot	500

Sea Cigars Short

OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 30 (AP)—Nine million cigars a month are shipped to Uncle Sam's bluejackets in the Pacific, but the demand is for 20,000,000, the naval supply depot here has disclosed.

About 23,000,000 packages of cigarettes go out each month to Navy men, afloat and at advanced Pacific bases. They use 25,000,000 candy bars every 30 days.

10-EMPLOYE VOTE ORDERED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30 (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board today directed that an election be held by employes of D. P. Welch of Hinsdale, N. H., to determine whether they wish to be represented by the International Brotherhood of Paper Makers (AFL). About ten employes are eligible to vote.

Wrong-Turn Soldier Out-Yorks Sgt. York

By HAL BOYLE

WITH THE AMERICAN FIRST ARMY IN GERMANY, Oct. 22 (Delayed) (AP)—Sgt. Thomas J. Gibbons had no intention of out-Yorking Sgt. York. He certainly had no idea he ever would capture 500 Germans single-handed.

This military pied piper from Elmhurst, N. H., zecame one of the heroes of his division—the famous fighting First Infantry—by a simple and unromantic error.

He simply made a wrong turn in the road.

Gibbons was red-balling down a road in a captured German vehicle thinking of everything except the enemy when he absentmindedly took a wrong fork. He was jolted rudely out of his day dream by coming face to face with a tiger tank and 15 Jerry soldiers.

This unexpected meeting was particularly embarrassing to the sergeant because he could not help noticing the acute interest the enemy soldiers took in the fact he was riding in a Nazi army car.

The ownership of the vehicle reverted abruptly to the representatives of Adolf Hitler and the New York lad became a prisoner. Amid much Teutonic mirth his captors marched him off to their headquarters for a third degree.

But Gibbons didn't know anything.

"Search me," he said when they asked him what unit he was from.

"I don't know—I just work here," he told them when they wanted to know what American forces were then attacking in that sector.

They dispatched him toward their rear lines. Here his captors ran into difficulty themselves. For they no longer had any rear. They had been encircled and what had been their rear was just another front now.

Frantically they began searching for an escape route. American artillery blasted them. American planes strafed them.

Gibbons went to work on an escape plan. He got a German soldier to talk two guards into helping him.

At the first chance the two Geerman soldiers killed two other German guards and Gibbons took charge. He raced across a field leading other prisoners and such German soldiers as were met and overpowered on the way.

He headed for a distant hill. Looking back, he noticed his little army was growing steadily—and the addition in personnel was all German.

"I didn't know whether we were being followed or chased—but I just keep going," he said.

As he passed through the fields little groups of surrounded German soldiers just tagged on to his "army," thinking it the safest way to surrender.

Reaching the American lines, Gibbons convinced the outpost he was an American and there was no trick behind this arrival en masse. When heturned over his prisoners he found the number had increased from the original 22 to more than 500.

Sgt. Gibbon dined on a can of "C" rations and caught some sleep.

You go right all your life and nothing happens. One wrong turn and you're a hero—that's the battlefield.

WHAT EVERY MAN DOESN'T KNOW

It's not exactly a secret. Matter of fact we'd like to shout it from the house-tops. You see, lots of men would like to own a Rochester tailored overcoat—if they could just afford one. For distinguished good looks, for that expensive air of well-being, for downright honest service, nothing quite compares with the Rochester product. Now it's true that Rochester needlework and Rochester styling usually do go hand in hand with upper-bracket prices. But not always! Take Bond's. Here, every overcoat is a true Rochester thoroughbred. But there's certainly nothing high-hat about our prices. How come? Because these grand coats are tailored in our own Rochester workrooms—and are sold direct to you through our own stores. Such a set-up always cuts costs. You pocket the difference! So go ahead—indulge your taste for better clothes. It's a heap of fun—when you do it the Bond way.

Worthy Son

CHICAGO, Oct. 30 (AP)—Eight-year-old Vance Norum's father is in the Army and Vance proved a worthy "man of the house" yesterday when his quick thinking was credited with saving the lives of six persons.

When smoke curling from under a closet door awakened Vance he acted quickly. He carried his two younger brothers, 5 and 2, downstairs; called the fire department; awakened his mother and three women roomers.

2 Medway Boys Dead in Crash

BELLINGHAM, Oct. 30 (AP)—Two boys were killed and two more hurt, one critically, today when, Police Chief Euclide Fleurette said, the driver of their automobile fell asleep and the car was demolished against a tree.

Donald Acquino, 17, was dead when extracted from the wreckage and Robert Just, 17, died in Woonsocket (R. I.) Hospital.

Rodney Demery, 17, is in critical conditio nat the same hospital, and Gerald Le Blanc, 17, the driver, escaped with minor bruises. All four were residents of Medway.

WE, THE PEOPLE PROTEST . . .

Against the brazen campaign of the Political Action Committee (PAC) to install Sidney Hillman as the power-behind-the-throne of a Fourth Term Administration

1. WE PROTEST AGAINST the PAC plan of using in America the tactics which swept minority groups to power in Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy — permitting them to impose ruthless tyrannies upon vast, unorganized masses of people!

2. WE PROTEST AGAINST the PAC plan to control the votes of 5,000,000 union workers and their 9,000,000 relatives!

3. WE PROTEST AGAINST the danger that your representative in Congress—Democrat and Republican alike—may be defeated with the power and money brought in from outside your community by the National Political Action Committee!

4. WE PROTEST AGAINST the efforts of any pressure group trying to mask its real purposes by working secretly within the Political Action Committee organized by factional leaders of the C. I. O.!

5. WE PROTEST AGAINST the fact that a fourth term President may be succeeded by a Vice President whose name, before nomination, was submitted for Hillman's O. K.

6. WE PROTEST AGAINST the threat of our fighting men coming back from Victory abroad to find, here in America, the very kind of minority ruled, one-man government they fought to destroy!

CITIZENS OF BOSTON AWAKEN TO OUR DANGER

Fight back now against the perils to our liberty

Make your voice heard. Make your protest count. Help the Independent Voters' Protest Committee publish more advertisements like this in more newspapers throughout America. Each dollar you contribute carries your protest to 300 more newspaper readers!

This is an independent crusade. Most of the work is done by volunteer, unpaid workers. It is a non-profit organization, independent of any political party. It has no "backers" except those of you who hear about it and are enthusiastic enough to help spread the warning throughout the country . . . to help defeat a minority-ruled, one-man government.

We believe the PAC is trying to seize political control of America! Back your protest with your dollars. Make your contribution today. Use the coupon, now! And make sure that all your friends and neighbors read this advertisement. Urge them to join in this fight to preserve a free America!

Veterans' Friend

By JAMES F. McENANEY

Q—I am suffering from tuberculosis which I contracted prior to my husband's induction into the Army. Because of a strict diet, medicine and necessary care, I find myself in financial difficulties.

I would like to know, due to circumstances, if my husband could be discharged for hardships at home. To whom would I apply and what proof other than doctor's certificate is necessary?

C. E. H., Somerville.

A—Your husband will have to make application for dependency discharge himself. He must take the initial action through commanding officer or personnel officer of his organization. It would help if you forwarded him doctor's certificate and information on financial status because of illness.

Q—I am the stepmother of a boy now serving in the Navy. He is sending his own mother an allotment each month, but nothing to his father. Can his father make application for an allotment from his son due to the fact his first wife is receiving money?

J. K., East Boston.

A—Apparently the boy is sending his mother a voluntary allotment for reasons of his own. His father cannot make application for that type allotment. The serviceman decides whom he wants to send his money to, regardless. Even on dependency allotment he would have to consent.

Q—I have been informed that I am entitled to an allotment. My two sons are serving in the Army overseas. My pay is small and I find it hard to get along. One of the boys helped toward the keeping of our home. How do I go about getting information as to my eligibility to receive aid?

J. A. M., Boston.

A—Suggest you visit the First Service Command Hq., 808 Commonwealth ave., Boston (at Cottage Farm Bridge), and tell your story to Personal Affairs Officer or officials in Office of Dependency and Benefits. It will be necessary to get further details regarding your dependency status.

Q After four months in the service my husband was given a medical discharge from the Army in June, 1941. Is he entitled to mustering-out pay?

I. H., Lawrence.

A—No. Mustering-out pay is given only to those discharged after Dec. 7, 1941, and who meet necessary requirements prescribed under the bill.

Q—I have a friend who, after serving two weeks in the Navy, received a special order discharge. Could you tell me what it means and also if he is entitled to a discharge button?

L. S., Arlington.

A—As one friend to another, a special order discharge covers a great many angles. Usually issued to a newly inducted naval man when a physical defect is discovered after he has reported for active duty. Of course, this may not be in his case. The discharged man knows the reason. Yes, he is entitled to the button.

Questions submitted to Veterans' Friend Editor, Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop sq., Boston 6, Mass., will be answered in this daily column.

When Children Have Repeated Colds

It is wise to start building their resistance by giving them Father John's Medicine if their repeated colds are due to lack of vitamin A. It is excellent for children and is free from alcohol and all harmful drugs.

Father John's Medicine affords prompt relief from coughs due to colds by soothing throat irritation. It is pure, wholesome, nutritive, and rich in vitamins A and D. Over 85 years in use.

Air Conference Will Go Ahead

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30 (AP) —Russia hung a question mark over her western European diplomacy today just as affairs in the Balkans slid into a groove of collaboration oiled by Marshal Stalin and Prime Minister Churchill.

The newest upset in Washington, and probably London, calculations came over plans for the international aviation conference opening in Chicago Wednesday.

Moscow announced Russia would not attend because "countries like Switzerland, Portugal and Spain which for many years have conducted a pro-Fascist policy hostile to the Soviet Union have also been invited."

It was learned here the declaration would not modify plans for the conference. American officials have talked with Soviet aviation experts and know their views and intend to keep them in mind as the conference develops.

PWs Repair U. S. War Cars

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. (AP) —German prisoners and former Italian soldiers have taken jobs alongside U. S civilians in this desert capital reconditioning Pacific battle scarred motor vehicles for return to action against Japan

The Nazis and their onetime allies are kept in separate units.

"The Italians are the best we have as a unit," reported Capt. Troy L. Fikes, Army shop officer. They work fastest, he explained, because they want the war finished soonest

"Some of these Italians have been in the war nine years," Fikes added. "Some went through the Ethiopian campaign and were captured later in North Africa. They want to go home."

Rodeo Heads for Hub; Opens on Thursday

More than 200 cowboys and pretty cowgirls today were Boston-bound for the 13th annual rodeo in Boston Garden.

Druggists recommend
PAZO for Simple PILES
Relieves pain and soreness

For relief from the torture of simple Piles, PAZO ointment has been famous for more than thirty years. Here's why: First, PAZO ointment soothes inflamed areas, relieves pain and itching. Second, PAZO ointment lubricates hardened, dried parts—helps prevent cracking and soreness. Third, PAZO ointment tends to reduce swelling and check bleeding. Fourth, it's easy to use. PAZO ointment's perforated Pile Pipe makes application simple, thorough. Your doctor can tell you about PAZO ointment.

This bomb is a BUG-BUSTER!

Worse than heat and rain and jungle—almost worse than Japs—are the flying, crawling insect enemies our boys battle in the Pacific.

But American ingenuity is winning the war against bugs, as well as other enemies. And one of the best weapons is an "aerosol bomb," improved by Atlantic research.

The "bomb" is a metal cylinder about twice the size of a hand grenade. It is charged with pyrethrins, a powerful insecticide dissolved in liquid freon, a refrigerator gas. In the early "bug-busters," impurities in the pyrethrins clogged the fine nozzles through which the deadly mist was sprayed. Atlantic Ultrasene licked the problem of purification—clogging disappeared.

Today you pull the cap and fizz-whoosh! The freon forces out the insecticide in a fine continuous spray that kills all lice, flies, gnats and mosquitos in the vicinity, but is harmless to humans.

One small bug bomb will fumigate a pup tent 250 times or the fuselage of a big bomber about 50 times.

Atlantic Ultrasene has proved to be the perfect carrier for insecticides because it is odorless, colorless and does not clog. Developed in peace, it is invaluable in war.

In the same way, Atlantic's wartime technical triumphs will serve to improve peacetime petroleum products—and bring you better motor oil and gasoline than you have ever known before!

Lend No Lease

LONDON, Oct. 30 (AP)—Distribution of 92 American-donated wedding gowns will reduc the wear and tear on 60 such gowns which already have made about 720 trips to the altar.

The lacy silken gowns presented by American women to the British War Relief Society have made an average of 12 "white brides" each. Members of various uniformed organizations constantly request one day's use of the gowns for wedding days in village churches or Westminister Abbey, with an American often the bridegroom.

Lower Postal Fees In Effect Wednesday

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30 (AP)—New special delivery, money order, insured, and collect-on-delivery postal fees become effective Wednesday.

Special delivery and C.O.D. fees will be higher. Money order and insured fees will be lower.

The special delivery stamp for letters weighing not more than two ounces will cost 13 cents instead of 10. Special delivery for such non-letter material as newspapers and parcel post articles weighing not more than two pounds will cost 17 cents instead of 15.

Newcomer to the money order field is the 5-cent postal note for amounts from one cent to $10.

Traditional money order fees are reduced to a level which existed prior to March 26.

New money order fees: One cent to $2.50, six cents (down from 10); $2.51 to $5, 8 cents (down from 14); $5.01 to $10, 11 cents (down from 18); $10.01 to $20, 13 cents (down from 22); $20.01 to 40, 15 cents (down from 25); $40.01 to $60, 19 cents (down from 30); $60.01 to $80, 20 cents (down from 34); $80.01 to $100, 22 cents (down from 37).

Fees for insurance of domestic mail of the third and fourth classes: one cent to $5, 3 cents (down from 10); $5.01 to $25, 10 cents (down from 20); $25.01 to $50, 15 cents (down from 30). The existing schedule has three brackets between $50.01 to $200, with fees ranging from 50 cents to 70. Under the new schedule the fee will be 25 cents for insurance from $50.01 to $200.

Fees for unregistered domestic C. O. D. mail of the third and fourth classes and sealed domestic mail of any class bearing first class postage: One cent to $2.50, 15 cents (down from 24); $2.51 to $5, 20 cents (down from 24); $5.01 to $25, 30 cents down from 34); $25.01 to $50, 40 cents (down from 44); $50.01 to $100, 50 cents (down from 64); $100.01 to $150, 55 cents (down from 80); $150.01 to $200, 60 cents (down from 90).

Fees for C. O. D. service for registered sealed domestic mail of any class bearing first class postage: One cent to $10, 40 cents (up from 25); $10.01 to $50, 55 cents (up from 30); $50.01 to $100 75 cents (up from 40); $100.01 to $200, $1 (up from 50); $200.01 to $300, $1.05 (up from 60); $300.01 to $400, $1.10 (up from 70); $400.01 to $500, $1.15 (up from 80); $500.01 to $600, $1.20 (up from 90); $600.01 to $700, $1.25 (up from $1); $700.01 to $800, $1.30 (up from $1.10); $800.01 to $1000, $1.40 (up from $1.20).

The existing 20-cent service fee for delivering C. O. D. mail upon terms differing from those originally stipulated at the time of mailing is reduced to 10 cents.

The present 10 cent charge for demurrage on domestic C. O. D. mail is reduced to 5 cents. There will be also a new 5 cent fee for notifying the sender of inability to deliver C. O. D. articles.

Lend No Lease

LONDON, Oct. 30 (AP)—Distribution of 92 American-donated wedding gowns will reduce the wear and tear on 60 such gowns which already have made about 720 trips to the altar.

The lacy silken gowns presented by American women to the British War Relief Society have made an average of 12 "white brides" each. Members of various uniformed organizations constantly request one day's use of the gowns for wedding days in village churches or Westminister Abbey, with an American often the bridegroom.

POLITICS ABOVE VICTORY

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT unwisely sought to turn the great military campaign in the Philippines to the advantage of his own candidacy in his Philadelphia speech, and to make politics out of MacArthur's victories.

"Speaking of the glorious operations in the Philippines," he said, "I wonder whatever became of the suggestion made A FEW WEEKS AGO that I had failed for political reasons to send enough forces or supplies to General MacArthur."

There have indeed been glorious operations in the Philippines in recent days, but instead of reflecting glory upon President Roosevelt they INDICT him for the intolerable delays in organizing those operations for which delays he was solely and selfishly responsible.

The American people are not of as poor memory about this matter as he might wish.

It was not just "A FEW WEEKS AGO" as he misleadingly implies, that the issue was raised of failure to supply General MacArthur for political reasons.

GENERAL MacARTHUR waited MORE THAN TWO YEARS for the men and supplies that would enable him to make good his pledge to return to the Philippines.

From the time of his arrival in Australia, he PLEADED for troops and guns, planes and ships.

For most of that time he pleaded so nearly in vain that not only was larger offensive warfare foreclosed to him, but the very lives of the few men he commanded were constantly endangered.

He always loyally strove to do what he could with what he had. He sent his most able and trusted commanders to Washington to BEG for something more than the mere trickle of arms he was getting.

When it came to his attention that he had been proposed and was being seriously considered for the Presidency in the United States, he vigorously and honestly disavowed all political ambitions.

But still adequate armament was not forthcoming, although American industry was turning out war materials in the greatest volume in all history and these materials were flowing to Africa, to England and to Russia in an ever-mounting tide.

It was under this dire stress that he was so long restricted to what he himself called mere island hopping.

Not until his earnest and honest disavowals of political ambition had been made so often and in such emphatic manner as to constitute his virtual humiliation—as they were meant to do—did he begin to receive more than a handful of men, planes, guns and ships.

OF COURSE General MacArthur has conducted "glorious operations" in the Philippines.

All of his military operations have been gloriously conducted, and masterfully conducted, and with a constant improvement of the American position in the Pacific and with a great economy in American lives.

General MacArthur has done these things because he is the greatest military commander in this war, and one of the very greatest in all the history of war.

He could have done them months and even YEARS sooner, if he had been adequately supplied sooner—or, to put it bluntly, if the New Deal Administration had considered it POLITICALLY SAFE to let MacArthur win sooner.

Of course the credit for what General MacArthur has finally and gloriously done President Roosevelt shares, but the BLAME for keeping General MacArthur so long from his vital task in the Pacific War (which is primarily America's war) is the President's alone.

Though girls admire gallant men
They find it a crowded spaces
That when a man removes his hat
His elbow's in their faces.
—ANON.

THE PRACTICAL view is that men should not remove their hats in crowded hotel or department store elevators. Above appears on signs in the elevators of a New York City hotel. Of course, if the elevator is not crowded the male passenger should remove his hat. Especially if among the rest of the passengers there is a beautiful brunette. Politeness always impresses the female sex . . . This column appears in the oldest daily newspaper in the United States. That is the Alexandria, Va., Gazette, which was established in 1784. George Washington raced horses at the Alexandria racetrack, which was noted for having placing judges who called finishes as they saw them. Once the Father of His Country thought one of his horses had finished first and was much put out when the animal's number didn't go up as the winner. Mr. Washington protested vigorously and even threatened to take all his horses from the track. But to no avail. The judges refused to change the decision. No doubt the turf reporter of the Alexandria Gazette covered this historic event.

BRIEFLY: India's army of two million men is the largest volunteer army in the history of the world. That so many men will offer to fight and die for their country is food for thought. Let us hope India is always on our side . . . Mary Winters of London, Eng., who died at the age of 86 years, lived all her life in the same house. I don't know how many different places I have lived in since I was born. Probably about a hundred thousand. Or so it seems.

FIRST MEETINGS: Where and when did you first meet the girl who became your wife? Astrologers have claimed the first meeting has some bearing on the married life of a couple. It is good, say they, to have first met at a theater, a dance, a restaurant or at the girl's home. At a racetrack is not so good. That means a life of many changes. In a hospital is bad, too. That means a life of many difficulties. The best time for a first meeting with a future bride, according to the star gazers, is somewhere outdoors when there is a rainbow in the sky. I must discuss this with Irene Dunne and other happily married women.

Can your Mules & Men Department suggest a cure for a husband who is always pawing other women? A. Our Mules & Men experts, who strive to take a realistic view of all situations, say such husbands are difficult to cure. The co-operation of the "pawed" women might help. If the man was the recipient of a few smacks in the face or kicks in the shin by a woman of Lupe Velez's vigorous type, his enthusiasm for the diversion under discussion might lessen. However, our M&M experts say some females do not object to being caressed by the husbands of other women. This makes the wronged wife's solution of the general problem more difficult.

WOMEN, ETC.: The Corset Committee of the British Board of Trade decides as to what styles and the number of corsets Englishwomen may have. On this committee are nine men and no women. Nor do the nine corset czars consult any feminine corset experts when making a decision. British women are bitter about this. Recently the Corset Committee made a decision based on its claim that only 2 per cent of British women have "problem figures." Feminine experts say 50 per cent of British women have "problem figures." Don't know what the United States percentage of "problem figures" is. However, I am going to skip that detail. I had enough trouble after I rashly quoted that Detroiter who said that as the majority of Chicago women were plump the bus and street cars seats in that city were made the widest in the country.

FAIR ENOUGH

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

(Copyright, 1944, by King Features Synd., Inc.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 30—I have presented my own explanation of the vicious effect of the law imposed on the whole American people by the opinion of Justice Jimmy Byrnes, writing for the majority of the Roosevelt Supreme Court, in the notorious teamsters' case.

Having flatly awarded to unionism a legal right to force money from owners of freight trucks carrying cargo into New York by beating up law-abiding citizens, without even a pretense of willingness to work for the money, Justice Byrnes retired into the role of "Assistant President."

Westbrook Pegler

To do this he gave up the security and prestige of a place on the highest court in the land to become a mere political trouble-shooter. Then, in Chicago, after he had been given reason to believe that Roosevelt would support him for the Vice-Presidential nomination, he was rejected by Sidney Hillman and the Communists of the CIO's Political Action.

He had come through for Roosevelt's political subsidiary in a dictum whose primary beneficiaries were members of the following of the President's friend, Dan Tobin, of the Teamsters' Union.

But when the time came for Roosevelt to stand by him and assure him the chance of such political future as the nomination would have offered, he was deserted by the man he had served so faithfully and at such great sacrifice.

★ ★ ★

DID I OVERSTATE the perfidy of the Byrnes opinion? Chief Justice Stone went even further, in his dissent.

Justice Stone wrote that the convicted men, many of them having criminal records, "lay in wait for trucks passing from New Jersey to New York and, by beating the drivers, procured payments" of $9.42 for a large truck and $8.41 for a small one.

★ ★ ★

BYRNES AND the majority defiantly held that Congress had intended to confer the legal right to collect these tariffs by beating up law-abiding truckmen who, themselves, were union men but members of local unions outside New York.

It may be noted that the term "labor union" has no binding legal definition. Any group of gangsters may qualify for legal status as a union by representing themselves to be "bargaining agents" for "labor."

So Justice Byrnes, while pretending to discriminate between gangs, actually conferred this privilege on groups, provided only that they take the trouble to obtain charters as unions. Many such charters have been obtained and operated on a national scale as rackets as subsidiaries of William Green's American Federation of Labor.

"In some instances," Chief Justice Stone continued, men "disappeared as soon as the money was paid without offering to render any service."

Later in his dissent the Chief Justice wrote that there was "abundant evidence that the payments were made to purchase immunity from violence and for no other reason."

★ ★ ★

SO IT WILL be seen that the Chief Justice was even more contemptuous of Byrnes' reasoning on behalf of the New Deal Supreme Court and for the special benefit of the union politicians and their squads than I have been.

It should be realized further that Byrnes here required the owners to pay this money to some men who could not legally enter the cab of a truck, being disqualified for drivers' licenses by their criminal records.

★ ★ ★

IN A RECENT CASE, arising out of the Byrnes decision, a driver placed aboard a truck entering New York, relieving the reliable, trustworthy employe of the trucking company, delivered a load of liquor to a gang of criminals who sold it into the black market.

The truck operator was responsible to the client for whom he was shipping the liquor, but the union had no responsibility.

When the Hobbs Bill passed the House, amending the law so that Byrnes' decision would be nullified, Roosevelt's watchman in the Senate committee which handled the bill smothered it in committee.

It never came out, and the extortion privilege thus was protected and continued to this very day, frequently to the benefit of his underworld union following, thousands of whom are on record in the criminal files of the F. B. I.

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 30—The brilliant Dorothy Parker, who accepts movie writing jobs as she pleases and tells the others just where they can go, has said "yes" to Constance Bennett about writing the dialogue for "Paris Underground."

Connie is elated, naturally, for what Miss Parker can do in the dialogue line is as sparkling as anything ever displayed in Tiffany's window. Her only stipulation is she be permitted to work in the East along with Boris Ingster, who is doing the script.

Connie leaves for New York Tuesday to confer with Parker, Ingster and Gregory Ratoff, and also to get some additional data from the "France Forever" committee. The picture is scheduled to go before the cameras Jan. 10.

NOT ONLY has Edward Small bought George Sanders' semi-biographical mystery thriller, "Crime on My Hands," but the Myron Selznick agency has set Sanders to play himself, George, who has the reputation of being a little on the temperamental side, should have no kick here writing his own lines, and speaking them, too. Story has a novel twist about a movie actor who has played so many detectives on the screen he gets fed up and insists on a great lover role. An extra is murdered on the set, our hero becomes involved, and is forced to "detect" again to clear himself. Scared?

DAVID SELZNICK considers the purchase of the Rev. Edward F. Murphy's prize winning novel, "The Scarlet Lily," the most important property he has acquired since "Gone With the Wind." Ingrid Bergman will be starred in this life story of Mary Magdalene in a technicolor production that will probably be Selznick's most important venture in 1945. The book was chosen by the Catholic Literary Foundation as its November selection and the purchase was made from galley proofs, since the novel is scheduled for November 10 publication. Fr. Murphy, a priest of the Josephite order, is pastor of the Blessed Sacrament Church in New Orleans.

PROSPECTIVE PAPA, John Loder, gets the top role in "Jealousy" for Producer Gustav Machaty—and in case it has slipped your mind, Machaty is the man who launched Hedy on her career in "Ecstacy." John plays opposite Jane Randolph, former RKO actress, who is so hepped on her role she walked out on her Reno divorce (with only 16 days to go before her final) to accept the Republic job.

SIDE-LINES: Joan Fontaine's mother, Mrs. Lillian Fontaine, makes her movie debut on the Para lot at the same time her daughter makes "Affairs of Susan"—but not in the same picture. Mrs. F. (who is very attractive and resembles her other daughter, Olivia De Havilland, more than Joan) gets the very good role of Jane Wyman's mother in "Lost Week-End" . . . Arthur Treacher's 82-year-old mother is an airplane spotter in England. When her son asked her how she got past the age limit she said: "Oh, I just told them I was over 30 and under 85!" . . . Been wondering what's happened to Phil Silvers, who did all right for himself in "Cover Girl." He gets another swell fling into comedy in "One Thousand And One Nights" at Columbia with Evelyn Keyes and Cornell Wilde . . . Every studio in town wants to borrow Robert Montgomery before M-G-M gets first fling at him. When Sam Bronston couldn't get Bob for "Decision" he temporarily postponed the movie. Universal also got a turn-down when they asked for him for a Deanna Durbin picture.

★ ★ ★

NO ONE at Warners will officially admit it, but the talk is Ida Lupino wants to bow out of "Happiness." She just isn't happy about it and so the Freres Epstein, Philip and Julius, are courting Nancy Coleman for the part. Nancy looks fine since the birth of the twins (she's Mrs. Whitney Bolton in more or less private life) and an ideal type for the cafe society gal she would play.

★ ★ ★

RAN ACROSS Van Johnson and Lana Turner making a few preliminary tests for "Week-end at the Waldorf." Lana said: "This is the first time Van and I have ever worked together." Van replied, "You wouldn't want to bet on that, would you!" Then the truth came out that Van had worked as a bit player in "Somewhere I'll Find You" with Lana and Clark Gable. Fact is, in the last scene when Gable was making such ardent love to La Turner, Johnson had one line to speak saying: "Must be nice work—if you can get it." Well, he's got it. He'll do all the love scenes with Lana in "Week-End."

HOLLYWOOD IN SHORTS: Nice gesture on K. Hepburn's part, reading that huge bowl of roses to Lucille Ball on her first day of shooting in "Without Love"; Jeffrey Bernerd's new interest is Beatrice Sheldon, English actress; Ken Murray says: "A perfect lunch helps many a gal who has no family tree" . . . and nobody could stop him! Those newsreel camera shots of the Japs trying to reinforce their garrison on Palau were taken by former movie actor Bill Lundigan; Fay Bainter has asked for and received her release from Metro; Laird Cregar, a nice guy, is off to six weeks rest at Del Monte on his doctor's orders before undergoing that long postponed operation; Glenn Billingsley is a brave guy. He opens the new Billingsley's cafe Tropics with a new decoration job the night before election; John Mitchell, the Warner actor who did all right as one of Bette Davis' suitors in "Mr. Skiffington," isn't doing so well in private life. His wife, the former Veronica Stern of the New York department store family, is suing for divorce; Turhan, the Turkish delight, at Hollywood Derby all by himself. That's all today!

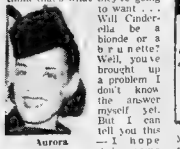
NEW YORK, Oct. 30—Walt Disney, in the bar at 21: "Yes, Dorothy, I am really going to do 'Cinderella,' but you won't see it for a couple of years. That's my postwar project. I want the boys to come home to something pretty and gay and escapist, because I think that's what they're going to want . . . Will Cinderella be a blonde or a brunette? Well, you've brought up a problem I don't know the answer myself yet. But I can tell you this —I hope she's a brunette, because if she is she'll be a lot easier to draw. If we decide to make her a blonde, it'll cost me another $100,000."



Aurora Miranda

"Donald Duck" Oh, he's fine thanks. Wait till you see him in "The Three Caballeros," with real people. Boy, does he love it! He flirts with genuine flesh and blood glamour girls—including Aurora Miranda Carmen's sister. Donald brings her orchids, and she gives him his first kiss. It's just sympathy on her part, but he's really love-sick."

CAROLE LANDIS in the Stork Club: "Did I ever tell you about the festival the natives in the Gilbert Islands put on for our benefit when we were there on the USO tour? It'd kill you, believe me. All the women of the islands had been sent away, so half of the men put on grass skirts and did the women's steps . . . Guitars? No, they didn't have any guitars, or even ukuleles. Not even drums. The musicians just sat around and beat on a box.

"I swear, just an old box.

"They start the dances by beating their arms like mad, and they go on and on. They did eight dances for us, and as far as I could tell, number eight was exactly like number one.

MARY ASTOR, in the cuckoo lounge of the St. Regis: "I think I've got a sleeper for you, a picture I did called 'Blonde Fever.' I may be wrong, but I think it's going to be a surprise hit. Dickie Whorf directed it, and he's so wonderful it wasn't like working at all, really. It was like one of those things where a lot of actors get together and say, 'Let's make a picture.'

"Well, now I'm taking the big plunge—Broadway. My palms get sweaty when I think of it. I kind of slipped into town quietly, and when I said I was looking for a part in a play, I really didn't expect much to happen. But overnight—30 or 40 plays! A lot of them weren't much good, of course. But I liked 'Many Happy Returns.'

I DON'T WANT TO INTERRUPT YOU IN YOUR SCIENTIFIC WORK...
BUT THERE'S A 6-FOOT FRIGHT WANTS TO SEE YOU RIGHT AWAY! HE LOOKS LIKE A STAND-IN FOR THE BOGEY MAN—AND SAYS HE WAS AN OLD NEIGHBOR A FEW YEARS AGO IN THE NEXT CAGE TO OURS!
AH-H, LET'M WAIT—I'M BUSY!

WASHINGTON, Oct 30—When I came back to the office today, after keeping a date to autograph a dozen eggs for a Plymouth rock, Miss Reid said

"I am taking time off to vote on election day but it is not to be considered a wage or salary increase."

"Miss Reid," I snarled, "I am in no mood for your bloody gibberism! Please explain what you mean before I report you to the Federal Trade Commission for unfair business practices."

"It is very simple, really," replied Miss Reid. "You will not be considered in violation of the wage stabilization program."

I picked up a paperweight, but before I could heave it, Miss Reid thrust a document at me.

"Just read this if you think I am babbling," she said. "It is a release from the Office of War Information. I will have water and an aspirin ready after you have finished."

So help me, this is what the handout said:

"The National War Labor Board announced adoption of the following resolution:

"Employers who grant their employes time off on Election Day in order to vote, without deductions from their pay, will not be considered to have granted wage or salary increases in violation of the wage stabilization program."

NOTE TO MR. CONNOLLY: Yoo, Hoo, Boss! I expect to be gone about an hour on Election Day, but don't try to sneak any extra chores into my July schedule!

I AM ABSOLUTELY enraptured by the pamphlet "Helpful Hints to Employers of Women," which has just been put out by the Office of Defense Transportation.

I might say at the beginning that I do not think I shall adopt any of the helpful hints because why should I go out of my way just to get belted over the head with a sapstepot? The first advice ODT gives on how to handle women is to turn a deaf ear to their little-tattle and gossip—and adds:

"Women like to be treated firmly but kindly—everything they say should not be taken seriously."

I can just picture myself going up to a dame and treating her firmly but kindly. What is the ODT trying to do—drum up business for the casket trade?

Also, I wonder how many of the great brains at ODT have tried turning deaf ears when the babes around them wish to get off a piece of gossip. Hasn't anyone ever told them that Hell hath no fury like a woman given the cold ear when she wants to tattle?

Other hints on how to manage dolls follow:

"Do not bawl them out—explain.

"Do not reprimand them in public—say it privately

"Do not show favoritism—be fair.

"Do not be familiar be friendly but impersonal.

"Do not patronize them—show them respect.

"Do not expect them to know what to do without being told—give them definite instructions"

* * *

I HAVE NO comment on the rule against bawling them out. I've never been able to work up enough courage to do it anyway, having invariably been on the receiving end.

And I positively have no intention of reprimanding any doll in private. If I ever get around to such a thing you can bet it will be as publicly as possible where I can call for help.

Furthermore I do not think I will take the advice to treat women with respect. I don't want to lose their friendship!

MRS. ROOSEVELT disclosed the other day that she had had a most interesting chat with Mrs. Cornelia St. George, a Hungarian woman. In the course of this enchanting tete-a-tete Mrs. St George advanced the idea that better understanding could be promoted among nations by revising history books.

There's a wonderful suggestion for you—rewrite history!

By George Dixon

The possibilities are limitless. We could promote better understanding with Britain by rewriting the Revolution and making it a basket picnic. Or with Japan and Germany by saying the whole thing was all in fun and just part of a fraternity initiation.

Personally, I would like to rewrite that part about my ancestors emerging from the primeval mud. This has been a sore subject with the family because people keep insisting they did not emerge far enough.

We could also do a lot with modern American history. Just rewrite it and make Mr. Roosevelt a Republican!

"I fully realize, sir, it's an odd way to teach history, but I have marvelous attendance records!"

Boston After Dark

EXCLUSIVE: The once-famous Hendricks Club, the late Martin Lomasney's personal political headquarters—or "bailiwick," as it once was called—is going to hold its traditional Sunday-night-before-election meeting this year . . . In the days of "Czar" Lomasney, the Hendricks Club's pre-election meeting, at which a caucus was supposed to decide on a slate of candidates, was something of such importance that all Boston newspapers assigned reporters to haunt the Hendricks Club until the verdict was reached . . . (The decision, as all Boston knew, was strictly a one-man decision, and the man was Boss Lomasney.)

* * *

JOHN I. FITZGERALD, who draped the Lomasney mantle around his shoulders as the right-hand man (and logical successor) to the great machine boss, Lomasney, continued the traditional Hendricks Club Sunday-before-election decoration the year after "Czar" Martin's death . . . His decision to revive the meeting this election-year will rate Page One stories all over New England . . . But whether the Hendricks Club verdict will assume its former importance is another question.

"BOSTON'S OWN 'DOC'" Eddie Golden" (as George Clarke would identify him), once practiced dentistry in Tremont st. 35 years ago . . . As producer of "The Master Race," and "Hitler's Children," the "doc" has come a long way since those uninteresting days . . . He bought out Louis B. Mayer when that potentate sold his Boston holdings . . . He married Anna Stein of Malden . . . His first picture, "Our Unborn Children," is still the object of hilarious discussion when Hollywood reviews its past . . . And "No Greater Sin," also a Golden production, cost the good doctor and his son, Bobby, no less than $42,000 (and tough $$$$, at that) before its career was ended . . . "Doc" Golden made $900,000 with "Hitler's Children," and that—even in Hollywood—is good.

THE BARBECUED SPARERIBS served at Ruby Foo's Den enjoyed a short life as a feature of the bill-of-fare . . . Tasty as they were, no more barbecued spareribs . . . Madame Foo made the decision when it required 10 hours to serve the first dozen portions . . . Alice Keating, the blonde bombshell of the law firm of Atherton, Friedman and Co., in State st., might win the popularity contest (which won't be held) among the downtown law-firm receptionists . . . She thinks that Frank Shapiro, who is handling the liquidation of the Cocoanut Grove's assets and affairs, is the future Blackstone of Boston . . . Broadway is hoping that Dick Krukeur brings in a hit with "Sleep, My Pretty One" . . . Richard got a touch break at the very start of his career . . . He owned the manuscript rights to a pair of songwriters who later became famous as "Rodgers and Hart" . . . Dick lost those particular rights, but retained a lot of respect along the Big Street when he refrained from making trouble on the issue . . . His first big break in a score of years came with the success of "Let's Face It," of which he owned a slice.

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 30—Bennett Cerf relates how Franz Werfel insisted on calling his play "Jacobowsky and the Colonel" although both his producer and his publisher pointed out that many Americans would stumble over the pronunciation of "Jacobowsky." "MAN IN THE SHOWER" by Peter Arno contains collections of cartoons which have become best sellers and the latest entry is Arno's.

There is the cartoon of the typically wealthy man, who, because of the gas rationing, is forced to use the subway, and the caption has him asking the guard "Will this train take me anywhere near the Racquet Club?"

Then there is the drawing of two old wealthy men at the Racquet Club, and the one drinking a mint julep is saying "What would I do if I were Gen. Eisenhower? I'll tell you what I'd do if I were Gen. Eisenhower. I'd do exactly what Gen. Lee would have done if he'd been Gen. Eisenhower! That's what I'd do if I were Gen. Eisenhower, sir!"

Depicting present day conditions, Arno shows a railroad cop speaking to a bobo who is relaxing in a freight car and saying to the bobo: "I have a good afternoon to you, sir. I represent the railroad in matters of emplonment." Also, the scene of the board of governors meeting and the chief of the firm is presenting a medal to the office boys with these words: "just a little token of our esteem and appreciation of your six weeks of loyal service."

Both Parties Fear Huge Silent Vote

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30 (INS)—The 1944 presidential race enters its final week today with high politicos and neutral observers uncertain whether Gov. Dewey can keep President Roosevelt from 16 years in the White House.

This private uncertainty is due to "the silent vote," as millions of registered voters in decisive states decline to reveal how they will vote Nov. 7.

Both parties claim this silent vote but secretly fear it might go to the opponent.

Outcome of the election appears to be very close on the surface.

Indeed, it can be so very close that the 3,000,000 service men and women, who began voting weeks ago, may determine the final outcome. If their ballots are decisive, the result may not be known until about three weeks after the election.

In Pennsylvania, with 33 electoral votes, both Democrats and Republicans claim the state with Democrats claim this year the silent vote is silent because this group of voters are deeply moved by the war and its accompanying sacrifices.

Beauty

Just the Right Oil for Dry Skin

Fashion

By RUTH MUGGLEBEE

THE GREATEST MENACE to the American woman's beauty today is a dry skin. Don't think that we New Englanders are the only ones who suffer from this complaint. All over the country more women are threatened with dry skin than any other complexion trouble . . . for it is no respector of age. Young and old skins alike suffer from dryness. But, the happy part of it is that it can be controlled . . . it can be softened and coaxed back to downy smoothness.

Need I enumerate the complicated, serious facial consequences of such a condition? Need I tell you of the many tell-tale wrinkles and expression lines which take hold and become ineffaceably etched if dryness is allowed to persist?

True, the long tense day has tried to engrave lines of strain there. True you've been worried about that boy . . . where he is and what he is doing in this fight for survival . . . but denial of skin coddling . . . refusal to keep up appearances is negative patriotism, we say. You eat to live, don't you? Then your face must live . . . and must be kept alive and young-looking. Don't tell me that boy wants you to deny your complexion loveliness its necessary props. His picture of you is a lovely one. Keep it that way . . . improve on it . . . so when he returns he'll find an even lovelier you . . . a prettier, softer, smoother you.

SOOTHING BLEND OF EIGHT OILS

We've heard plenty of young men say: "Take care of that pretty face." . . . so don't let him down. And, it isn't all for his sake . . . as much as for your own . . . that you should pamper that dry skin. You'll feel better if you know you look better . . . if you know that your skin is a glorious coverage of your features.

That's why we don't want you to let a day pass before you get this special facial oil . . . actually a soothing blend of eight different oils . . . and let it be your powerful ally in getting after dryness and those unwanted by-products, wrinkles and expression lines. You'll find it a great boon to skin softness and loveliness for this oil works better and more efficiently than most creams. It is richer, more penetrative and faster in softening the skin since oil is more quickly absorbed into the skin and retained there to assist Nature in the renewal of your complexion youth. Be sure and pay extra attention to the corners about the eyes and mouth.

For the name of this special facial oil, phone the Beauty Dept., LIBerty 4000, or write me, care of the Boston Evening American, inclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

THESE ARE PLAGUING DAYS for the dry-skinned gal if she is negligent in her beauty routine . . . but unmindful, happy ones if she subscribes to a special facial oil . . . actually a soothing blend of eight different and important oils . . . to keep her complexion swathed in perpetual softness and smoothness and free from that "end of the day" look. Universal Starlet June Vincent's complexion is an example to follow.

Here's Halloween Menu

By MARTHA LEE

HALLOWEEN is a good time to extend hospitality to friends and clear some of your social debts. This, of all holidays, calls for informal entertainment. Try to carry out the traditional orange and black color scheme in some items of the menu and you need look no further for decorating schemes. Pitted ripe olives stuffed with pencil-sized pieces or raw carrot is one way to do it, and a good tasting relish it is, too.

If you are looking for further menu suggestions perhaps this one will be of assistance:

HALLOWEEN MENU

Creamed Chicken on Split Baking Powder Biscuits
Succotash
Carrot Stuffed Ripe Olives
Prune Muffins
Canned Cling Peach Salad
Almond Cookies
Chilled Whole Fruit Nectar

CREAMED CHICKEN

5 tbsp. chicken fat, butter or margarine
½ tbsp. flour ¾ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. pepper ¼ tsp. nutmeg
¼ tsp. celery salt 1 cup milk
1 cup chicken stock
½ cup thin cream
2 cups diced cooked or canned chicken
1 tsp. paprika, or 1 pimiento, cut in strips
2 tbsp. minced parsley

Melt fat, stir in flour, salt, pepper, nutmeg, and celery salt, and when well blended, slowly add chicken stock, milk, and cream, stirring constantly over low heat until mixture thickens and boils. Add chicken and blend well. Reheat. Serve on toast, in croustades or patty shells, or on split baking powder biscuits. Sprinkle with paprika or pimiento and minced parsley. Makes 6 servings.

Note: If canned chicken is used, the chicken stock may be replaced by an equal amount of milk.

PRUNE MUFFINS

2 cups sifted flour ½ tsp. salt
3 tsp. baking powder 1 cup milk
3 tbsp. sugar
½ cup chopped prunes
1 egg, well beaten
3 tbsp. shortening, melted

Mix and sift dry ingredients, add chopped prunes. Combine egg, milk and shortening and add to flour mixture, stirring only until mixed. Use tablespoon to dip batter into greased muffin pans and fill them 2-3 full. Bake in hot oven (425 degr. F.) for 20 to 30 minutes, according to size of muffin. Makes 1 dozen medium-sized muffins.

ALMOND COOKIES

½ cup shortening ½ cup sugar
Dash of salt 2 Egg yolks
½ cup finely crushed almonds
1 cup sifted flour (about)
1 egg white 1 tsp. water
Chopped almonds

Cream together shortening, sugar and salt; beat in egg yolks, then finely crushed almonds. Gradually stir in flour until dough is stiff enough to handle; chill thoroughly. Roll ⅛ inch thick on lightly floured board; cut with small crescent-shaped cutter and place on greased baking sheet. Brush with egg white and water beaten together until frothy; sprinkle with chopped almonds and bake in moderately hot oven (375 deg. F.) 12 minutes. Makes 1½ dozen cookies.

My Day

By Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt

WESTBROOK, Ct., Sunday—I was very glad on Friday night that I had kept my promise to speak at the United States student assembly at Simmons College, and to go and visit our grandson.

I think young groups find it harder to get speakers, particularly in the middle of a political campaign when most speakers are doing campaign work and the young people are not basing their meetings or their forums on a political subject. In addition, I learned long ago that having once told a child you will do something, if you wish to build up confidence in the future promises, it is well to keep those you make right along.

* * *

I WAS SORRY, however, not to be able to go to Philadelphia and Chicago with my husband. But I listened over the radio to both speeches, and I am quite sure my husband was so surrounded by crowds that my presence was not necessary. In previous campaigns I have always made certain engagements during the week before election, and there are some that I must keep in this campaign.

This morning in Connecticut, where I am visiting Miss Esther Lape, is cold but lovely, with white clouds blowing across a deep blue sky. Leaves are nearly gone from the trees, but there is still a little red color and much russet and gold, and the grass is still green. On my dressing table was a little vase of mignonette.

Mignonette always carries me back to my grandmother's garden, where it grew in great quantities.

* * *

WE SPENT last night in the old done-over farm house where my head nearly touches the ceiling in the bedroom, and where I am sure in the old days no such warm carpets and comfortable chairs greeted the children as they climbed to their very chilly attic bedroom.

I can hardly believe it, but I have received an anonymous letter which says nothing but pleasant things. That has never happened to me before.

Both the letter and the verse accompanying it are very kindly meant, and certainly helped to do the thing the writer wished to do. She says: "Even Mrs. Roosevelt must need morale lifting, too."

HIGH COLOR is high style . . . and this exquisitely tailored suit in a glowing American Beauty red gabardine is a knockout for color and design. Pointing up the effect of line and cut . . . are the four flap pockets and self-bound outline of the round neck and front . . . turned back on one side only and caught with a jewelled clip. The huge beaver felt in matching shade . . . beaded with green wool jersey drape around the high crown is ultra-smart. Universal star Louise Allbritton poses.—R. M.

Grace in Using Names

Once your eyes and ears have been opened to the pleasant habit many people have in using names attractively, you can have an engaging time cultivating this habit for yourself. Watch these people and you'll hear that they use your name quite often during a conversation with you. They pronounce your name with complimentary clearness when they introduce you. When they reply to an introduction, they add the name after the "How do you do." We like the sound of our own names! —MRS. BEECKMAN.

Suit for Under Coat

By BETTINA BEDWELL

FROM now on about the only airing your suit will get will be under a winter coat, and there are a lot of suits that aren't made for such a role. However, there are others, and you're lucky to have one, particularly designed to pair off with your winter coat. They are warm enough to wear under one.

Such a model is the one Miss Dulin has sketched. It comes from that very famous designer, Claire Potter, who has a delightful way of mixing colors. The colors of this suit are skillfully blended for that brown coat lots of you have.

A jacket of turquoise blue fine wool is bordered with mink brown wool, along its cardigan closing, and on its sleeves. Note the graceful squared armholes, that give you athletic but rounded shoulder lines. The skirt is brown to match the banding.

From a Wine Cookbook

You've tasted wine-cookery in fine restaurants. Now discover what goodness wine can bring to your own cooking!

Ground Beef Burgundy Steaks

Mix 1½ lbs. ground beef or hamburger with 1½ tsps. salt, ¼ tsp. pepper, and ½ cup Burgundy or Claret wine. Shape into 4 or 5 flat cakes about 1 inch thick. Brush with oil and broil slowly 8 to 10 minutes, turning once; or brown in a hot skillet, turning frequently. For sauce: add ½ cup same wine to fat in pan, heat to boiling, season, and pour over steaks. Garnish with raw or fried onion rings.

Serve the same wine with the meal

You'll enjoy the taste harmony of red table wine with hearty dishes like the hamburger steaks above. As a companion to lighter foods like chicken and fish, try the more delicate white table wines such as California Sauterne and Rhine Wine.

For evening entertaining — keep some California Sherry and Port on hand. Let your dealer help you select them.

Crisis in France On Arms Order

PARIS, Oct. 30 (AP)—Predictions of nationwide demonstrations accented today an incipient crisis precipitated by the De Gaulle government's action in forbidding everyone except the regular army and police to bear arms.

The order, apparently directed at Communist-partisan elements who have defied the government's authority, particularly in southern France, at instant opposition from the influential National Resistance Council, brains of the French Underground during the German occupation.

The council declared the patriotic militia (militia)—an anti-Vichy guerrilla organization largely communistic—should be given a legal status. At a conference with a delegation from the council, De Gaulle said the government would insist the decree be respected.

3 Franco Armies Fight Uprising

LONDON, Oct. 30 (INS)—The London News Chronicle reported in a dispatch from Paris today that Generalissimo Franco was taking stern military measures to cope with widespread unrest in Spain.

The report said a Spanish army corps composed of Moroccan foreign legion and civil guards units as well as police forces was at the Tyrenean frontier.

A similar force was said to be stationed about a headquarters at Pontevrada, Galacia, and a third force of mounted police and legionnaires at Sierra del Guadelupe.

The conviction grew in London diplomatic quarters that the situation along the Franco-Spanish frontier does not pose a serious threat to Franco's Falangist regime.

How to keep a house from catching cold!

ONE WAY to keep a house from getting cold is by weatherstripping all doors and windows. Closing up the cracks that let cold in—and heat out.

There is going to be some shortage of coal delivered to homes this winter. Not because less coal is being mined. It is estimated that 29 millions more tons of bituminous coal will be mined this year than last—with fewer men. Quite a tribute to mine owners and miners alike!

There are adequate rail facilities for hauling the coal to your city. But certain grades of coal are going to be greatly in demand for war production. And your coal dealer is handicapped by a shortage of manpower, trucks and tires. So be patient with him.

Little, common-sense precautions can make your coal pile last 10% longer—and save that much on your fuel bill.

Such things as weatherstripping, cleaning the heating system, closing off unused rooms, firing carefully, and drawing your shades at night can help to keep your family snug and warm.

One of the biggest jobs of the C & O Lines is hauling coal from the mines along its routes, so we're in a position to understand the problem, and to know how essential coal is these days.

by Izzy Ort

Well, fokes, here I iz on da train to The Big City down in Noo York, on me way to a few days hard work, diggin' up some real talent for me Grille and El Tropico Room on Essex St. And buleeve me it is one tough job as the war has made a serious dent in show-business manpower, too. However, yers trooly iz well aware of the high type of entertainment you fokes expect when you visit me Essex Street Whoopee Parlors, and will scrape the bottom of the barrell, if necessary, to bring back the best obtaynabul Broadway talent, some real top-flight acts in a show that can't be beat. Yessirree, yers trooly, Izzy "Billy Rose" Ort in person, has bilt hiz bizness on real entertainment talent among other things, and has made a solemn pledge to hisself and the public dat the quality of the shows in his popular Grille and swank El Tropico Room will never slip, even a tittle. So keep yer eyes open fer more o: the same swell shows yer so used to here on Essex Street. . . Right in da middle of me big batch ov overseas mail whurt shows up da other day but a long epistle from me friend and former employe, PFC L. Bosco, now at Paris Island, S. C. . . . Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE

Monday, Oct. 30, 1944

IF TODAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY—Very capable when rightly educated. Control passions, avoid extremes. These warnings are not to discourage, but to point out pitfalls. Be careful with whom you associate, be not too critical of others. You have an analytical mind, and can accomplish quickly, when you once put that fine mind to the task of consistency in worth while effort. Versatility, energy are your highlights. Birthdate: John Adams, second U. S. President; Richard Brinsley (Butler Sheridan), Irish statesman, dramatist.

Lugosi Rewins Wife With Candy, Flowers

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 30 (AP)—One of the screen's high-powered horror men, Bela Lugosi, has won back the affections and esteem of his wife. Lugosi said they had become reconciled and that her divorce suit is to be dismissed.

"I have courted her with flowers and candy ever since she walked out," Lugosi said. "As a European I expected things too much my own way in the home. American girls don't like that. They want things more 50-50."

Dowling Challenges Son to Write Play

Eddie Dowling, hilt-deep in stage business, has challenged his son, John Graham Dowling, to write him a play. The 25-year-old Dowling, South Pacific newspaper correspondent for the past two and a half years, inadvertently gave his dad such ideas in an 18-page letter he recently wrote him.

Notre Dame Must Fight To Beat Navy and Army

By JACK CONWAY

NOTRE DAME will be fighting for its football life when it battles Navy at Baltimore on Saturday and the Army in New York on November 11 in view of the startling happenings in Saturday's games.

If it had not been for a 65-yard run by Achille (Chick) Maggioli, who is today on his way to the Marine training base at Parris Island, S. C., the Irish would have lost to Illinois. Maggioli made his brilliant dash after taking a lateral from Bob Kelly.

Ed McKeever

Meanwhile Navy staged a surprising comeback when it easily won from Pennsylvania by a score of 26 to 0 and proved that in Clyde Scott it has one of the best kickers and field generals in college football. A quick kick by Scott netted 73 yards, while this star clicked with repeated long punts.

Navy proved that it could win on a kicking and rushing game. Other than when Bruce Smith started throwing passes late in the contest the Navy did not go to the air a great deal.

The Army showed power and brilliance as it won from Duke, 27 to 7.

On what these games showed, Notre Dame will be fighting with its back against the wall when it takes on Navy and Army. Its team of 17-to-19-year-old players will be giving away age and experience to the service teams.

Ed McKeever will also have to fill the gap caused by the loss of Maggioli. A year ago it was Angelo Bertelli, top forward passing quarterback, who left Notre Dame for the Marines on the eve of the Army game. Frank Leahy had Johnny Lujack ready to take over Bertelli's duties, and while Lujack was not as great a player as Bertelli he did a creditable job in their first football clash this fall.

Dartmouth, back in its own football class, displayed power and punch as it nosed out Brown, 14 to 13. It is apparent that the New England colleges can give good accounts of themselves when they play each other, but that they do not class with the top mid-western teams.

Chimmy Battles Ryan

HENRY CHMIELEWSKI will have Soldier Ryan as an opponent in a 10-round bout at a Callahan A. C. boxing show at Mechanics Building on Thursday night. Ryan, who is stationed at Aberdeen Field, Maryland, scored two wins over Gene Boulden in local rings. The soldier proved he is an aggressive, hard hitting boxer, and that he can take a punch.

Chimmy is a heavy right-hand puncher and he will strive for a kayo.

This will be the only Boston boxing show this week. Last week when the Callahan A. C. and Goodwin Club operated neither club drew many cash customers. Until there is more talent available it is unlikely that the local clubs will wish to hold shows on the same week.

The one bright spot of the week was Billy Tordiglione's fine showing against Jimmy McDaniels of California. While McDaniels won, Tordiglione's aggressiveness and courage did much to make the bout a crowd pleaser.

B. C. Furnishes Upset

BOSTON COLLEGE furnished one of the most surprising as well as pleasing upsets when it won from Syracuse, 19 to 12. With very little material available, Boston College has made a remarkably good showing on the gridiron this season. Its victory over Syracuse will add to the interest in its clash with Harvard at the Stadium on Nov. 18 and to its game with Holy Cross on Nov. 25. It will be argued that the improved Boston College eleven has a chance to even its score with the Crimson who won

Ted Young Heads Amateur Skaters

CLEVELAND, Oct. 30 (AP)—Ted Young of St. Louis was elected president of the Amateur Skating Union of the United States at the organization's annual meeting yesterday. Retiring President Pete Miller of Chicago was named the association's delegate to the Amateur Athletic Union.

Vice presidents elected include Herb Schwartz of St. Paul, Ben Bagdad of Detroit and Frank Callahan of Schenectady, N. Y. Henry Kemper of St. Louis was named secretary-treasurer.

Tentative bids for the North American indoor and outdoor championships were received from Detroit, Schenectady, St. Paul, St. Louis and Occonomowoc and Lacrosse, Wis.

Kopf Seen Coach of Year

By HUCK FINNEGAN

Herb Kopf remained in New York today on business, but his players returned from their 17-14 victory over the Brooklyn Tigers extolling him as "coach of the year."

Capt. Keith Ranspot was the most voluble, and usually the elongated end has little to say. "Look what he gave me," said Ranspot proudly, displaying the football used in the Yanks' first N.L. victory. "We tried to give it to him because he pulled us out of the doldrums after the Eagles shellacked us (38-0) and also because the win was registered 'in his own backyard.' But he insisted the captain have it. Believe me, I'll treasure this as long as I live. He's one swell feller and the best coach anybody ever worked for."

Bob Davis revealed that Tom Gallery, Brooklyn general manager, had said to Kopf before the game: "Herb, you're doing the best coaching job in the league. Even George Marshall (Redskins) admits it."

"Don't try to soften me up," replied Kopf.

Remarkable feature of the game from a Yanks' standpoint was that the backfield was all shot physically. Stasica, Gudmundson, Turbert, Steinmetz and Cafego had been battered so much by the Eagles that they saw little action, Gudmundson and Turbert none at all. Williams, Davis, Martin and Cronin played practically the entire game. Tackle Ed McGee played 60 minutes, ends Ranspot, with a sore throat, and Crowley, 57 minutes. Morelli, Lio and Riggs also went most of the way.

"Our defenses were what won for us," said the Yanks. "Kopf had everything doped perfectly. The Tigers are a running team, but we stopped them. And when Johnson tried to pass we flattened him. But the main reason we won was that we outfought them, and that's where Kopf deserves credit. He convinced us after the Tigers had taken a 7-0 lead that we were the better team, and he was right. He's a marvel as a morale-builder."

The Yanks scored in the second period when Cafego passed 19 yards to Crowley and the ex-Dartmouth end galloped 30 yards for the T. D. They got their second T. D. in the third when Morelli scooped up Cecil Johnson's fumble and raced 38 yards to score. The clincher came with only three minutes to play. Ed McGee intercepted Frank Sasche's pass on the Tiger 35, carried it all the way to the 10. Stopped on the ground, the Yanks called on Augie Lio for a field goal and the latter accommodated.

Yes, the Yanks were in high spirits as they detrained at Back Bay station. "We'll whip the Giants next week," they promised.

Day off today, but Kopf will get to work promptly at 9:30 tomorrow morning . . . George Cafego was delegated to speak at the football writers' luncheon today at Hotel Kenmore . . . Denis Delaney and Swede Nelson went to Brooklyn to root the Yanks home.

Leo Bondy Rites in N. Y.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (INS)—Funeral rites will be held today for Leo J. Bondy, 61-year-old vice president and treasurer of the New York Giants baseball club, who died yesterday at the New York Hospital after a long illness.

Bondy, who practiced law in New York, became interested in baseball when the late Charles A. Stoneham, John McGraw and Judge Francis McQuade bought the Giants in December, 1918.

Bondy became vice president when McGraw died in 1932 and became treasurer upon the retirement of Judge McQuade.

Grid Injury Fatal

PONTIAC, Mich., Oct. 30 (AP)—Edwin Soderberg, 15, is dead from a neck fracture suffered in high school football practice. Soderberg, who died Saturday night, was the second Michigan youth to suffer fatal football injuries this year.

John E. Warner tells

Why This Man LOST HIS HAIR

When this man noticed the first danger signals he ignored them. When his scalp itched he put oily tonic on it. When he combed his hair and found an excessive hair fall he consoled himself with the thought that it would grow back just as fast. "Too busy" he said, to take a few simple treatments. Now it's too late.

Don't ignore nature's own warnings. See John E. Warner for a free private consultation today. No case is ever accepted unless beneficial results are reasonably certain. Fees for treatment are very moderate and are payable as the treatments are taken—not in advance. There is a separate dept. for women.

Packers Keep Record Perfect

The Green Bay Packers, apparently unstoppable, held top ranking today for both divisions of the National Football League with six straight victories and no defeats. Their latest victims were the Detroit Lions whom they defeated yesterday, 14 to 0, at Briggs Stadium, Detroit, before 30,844 spectators. The Lions, in losing, at least could boast they practically had handcuffed Don Hutson, the Packers' famed pass receiver, who was held to two points which he kicked after the two touchdowns.

The game at Washington, which the Redskins won, 42 to 20, from the Card-Pitt outfit, was a stormy affair with four of the players being tossed out of the fray for rough stuff—Jim North and Joe Aguirre of the Redskins and Cliff Luggan and Tony Bova of the Card-Pitts.

The great pitching of Sammy Baugh and Frankie Filchock was chiefly responsible for the Redskins' victory, the latter tossing two touchdown passes to Aguirre. Baugh hurled two touchdown passes also, one to Bob Seymour and the other to Doug Turley, the last one for 35 yards just two seconds before the game ended.

Johnny Grigas got two of the Card-Pitt touchdowns and pitched a pass to Don Currivan for the other.

The Chicago Bears, their own chance to retain the league championship about hopeless, dimmed Cleveland's hopes also by whipping the Rams, 28 to 21, at Wrigley Field in Chicago before a crowd of 23,644.

The Philadelphia Eagles defeated the New York Giants, 24 to 17, before a crowds of 42,639 at the Polo Grounds, after trailing 10 to 17 at the half.

In the other league game, played at Brooklyn, the Boston Yanks won in the last three minutes over the Tigers on Augie Lio's field goal which left the score at 17 to 14. The game was played before 13,237 spectators.

Sheridan Upholds Melrose Prestige

Walter Sheridan, Leo Troy and Andy Williams were three key men in Melrose High's undefeated, untied eleven last fall, and Coach Dave Gavin shipped all three express to his alma mater—Holy Cross—for 1944 duty. "They'll beat BC's civilians by themselves," was the consensus.

Probably they would have, had they been able to stick together. Certainly Troy started out like an All-America end, catching TD passes against Temple (1), Villanova (2) and Brown (1). All this while Sheridan was idle.

"Wait'll Sheridan starts passing to him," crowed H.C. men, and sat back reveling in the prospect. But just before Sheridan made his appearance in the Brown game, Troy suffered a shoulder separation, and is lost for the season. And today Master Williams, a Grade A guard, was on his way to Great Lakes, without getting a chance to play for H.C. (Math was his stumbling block).

So now, instead of three towntes to cheer when H.C. faces B.C., the good burghers of Melrose will have only Sheridan—though that in itself is something.

Undefeated HC started eight freshmen against Coast Guard (26-14), to wit: Sheridan, Nester, Sullivan, O'Keefe in the backfield, end Halliday, tackle Fontana, guard Reilly and center Kronoff. Of the eight, Nester, Sullivan, Reilly, Fontana, Kronoff and Halliday are 17-year-old civilians, and O'Keefe just reached his 18th birthday. Only veterans on the squad are ROTC members Capt. Kenney, Chief Ferrazzi, Tom Smith, Ted Morasky, Ed Noonan, Bill Sullivan. Of these Kenney, Ferrazzi and Smith were '43 regulars . . . Guard Fox and F. B. Turner, who see much action, also are 17-year-old civilians. Thus if HC whales BC on Nov. 26, it will be a bunch of kids who'll do it, and not gargantuas.

Before the 1942 H.C.-B.C. game, Ank Scanlan was berated as a "high school coach." His stature changed with H.C.'s memorable 55-12 win over the Eagles. Last season Scanlan was away during the week as he is this fall, and Lud Wray bore the brunt of the coaching. H.C. had a big year. When Wray was released at season's end, Scanlan was again "on the spot." But since H.C. has been winning regularly under Da Grosa, the tune has changed. "Scanlan's a miracle coach," said one observer at Worcester. "He can win with anybody."

Two fumbles and an intercepted pass led to H.C.'s first three T.D.'s against Coast Guard. Disappointed in the Crusaders' blocking and tackling in recent games, Da Grosa has the squad scrimmaging again, something he didn't do after the first three games . . . Sheridan and Turner, H.C.'s punters, are both left-footed. Yet Sheridan is a right-handed passer . . . Gene Spinelli, from Everett High, made his H.C. debut against Coast Guard. He's 17 and a guard . . . Scouting H.C.-Coast Guard were Earl Brown and Milt Piepul of Dartmouth, Floyd Stahl of Harvard, Rip Engle of Brown, Moody Sarno of B.C., and a delegation from the U. S. Sub base, H.C.'s next opponent. Sub Base recently tied Worcester Poly, 7-all.

Weeping Towels For School Coaches

By MIKE GILLOOLY

The moaners' bench for high school coaches received no newcomers from the high school ranks after the week-end workouts but the old standbys (weeping for the past two weeks) groaned just as loud, some even louder, today.

Bill Joyce of Lynn Classical heads today's list. Here was a Classical team that was on the way up after dropping one to Everett. For two minutes it was definitely going places. But the wheels on the Victory Express suddenly fell off.

Salem was the opposition and the Witches were in the ultra select undefeated-untied-unscored upon class. Not a bright prospect for Joyce, no matter how you look at it. It took less than two minutes to knock the Witches out of one of those classifications. Babe Boverini smashed over from the four for a touchdown, set up by a poor kick and Salem was trailing.

Two minutes after that Classical was the losing team and as seconds went on it became worse. Tom Brennan started to roll and ripped off three touchdowns and Classical was on the way to its most humiliating defeat of all times. Salem kept traveling until it piled up 51 points so Joyce has good reason to moan.

MELROSE WHAMMING STOPS

Dave Gavin is feeling the complete force of the schoolboy blitz. His Melrose team rode on high for 22 consecutive games without defeat but when it finally came it arrived in bunches.

The Red Raiders were hit first by Malden, top team in Class A and definitely title bound. Then before Melrose could catch its breath and start a new streak Saugus and Somerville came into the picture and trampled on to victory. Three in a row is hard to take, especially after that glaring record, and now Gavin wonders if it will ever stop. Wakefield has started moving. But Hal Root is having his troubles at Wakefield and, despite the Melrose lethargy, Gavin should ring up number one in the new parade.

Two years ago Eddie Pidgeon came out of retirement to take over the reins at Medford and the Mustangs took the state championship. Last year the going was a little rough with three losses. Now with the season half gone Medford has lost three while winning only two. "If they weren't so green. If we could only get an offense," was all Eddie could say after dropping a tough one to Everett. But you have to score to win games and that's the one thing the Medfords can't seem to do.

Another perennially successful mentor riding the bench is English High's Bill Ohrenberger. B. C. High finally snapped a streak that went back to 1941 and then the Blue was shut out by Groton. "No excuses but can't understand it," is all the congenial Ohrenberger can say.

Ballyhoo for a B. C. High and South Boston game has already been started and it's a swell idea. But the latest move is for the East Boston-Southie battle to be played Thanksgiving Day along with the English-Latin game at Braves Field.

Malden, Peabody and Salem are staging quite a race for first place in Class A with Malden's Tornadoes still holding an .85 lead over the deadlocked North Shore crews. Class B is being hotly contested between Brookline and Saugus with the Wealthy Towners holding a slight advantage. Marlboro still leads un-un Winchester in Class C and Northbridge appears to be definitely in in Class D with seven straight triumphs to its credit.

Bruins Have Power Despite Defeats

By BILL GRIMES

Over the week-end, all six contenders for N. H. L. honors swung into action, with the Bruins dropping decisions to Les Canadiens and the Red Wings. Two years ago, the Rossmen were set back 3 to 2 in their opening game by the Flying Frenchmen and the following night they were shut out by Detroit. On Saturday night, Art Ross' charges dropped a 3 to 2 verdict to the world's champions in Montreal and last night they were snowed under 7 to 1 in Detroit.

According to Manager Ross, the game with Canadiens took too much of a toll and the Bruins were unable to get organized last night. However, they did manage to stay in the game for two periods but they fell apart at the seams in the final chapter, during which the Red Wings scored four times.

Despite the fact that he has been beaten for 10 goals in two games, Harvey Bennett, the Bruins' new goal minder, gave a fine account of himself. Due to the fact that he is just out of the juniors, with no previous professional experience, Bennett was unfortunate to open his N. H. L. career against the Flying Frenchmen, holders of the Stanley Cup and the Red Wings, who were the unsuccessful finalists in the big money series last spring. Les Canadiens and Detroit are the best scoring clubs in the N. H. L. and, almost important is the fact that they were playing on home ice.

Although he was disappointed in the outcome of Saturday night's game, Manager Ross had nothing but the highest praise for Harvey Bennett and Ken Smith, the rookie left winger, who is working on the Cowley line. Ross called attention to the fact that two goals made by the Frenchmen were scored while "Dit" Clapper and Jack Shewchuk were cooling their heels in the penalty box.

"I realized before we took the ice last night," declared Art Ross, "that we were going to get our ears pinned back. The Bruins battled Les Canadiens every second of the sixty minutes they were in action at the Forum Saturday night. Then, they changed to their "civies," jumped into taxis and raced over to the Montreal West station to catch a train for Detroit.

"We have five kids who are breaking into pro hockey. They were unable to relax after Saturday's contest and I question that any of them had as much as two hours sleep before they went out to the Olympia last night to take on the Red Wings.

"Although I'll permit any of the players to skate today, there'll be no practice session until tomorrow. On Wednesday, we will go over to Toronto and work out daily at the Maple Leafs' Gardens for three days.

Fourth Defeat for Eddie Shore's Team

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 30 (AP)—The Cleveland Barons handed the Buffalo Bisons, American Hockey League champions, their fourth defeat in five starts last night, 3 to 1, before 9213 spectators.

Doug Lewis opened the scoring for the Bisons late in the first period converting Wimpy Jones' pass while each team was one man short. Les Cunningham knotted the score early in the second, his screened blue line shot eluding Alf Picard.

Eagles Attempt To Sink PT Boys

The Boston College football squad will hardly have time to catch their second wind after eking out a 19-12 verdict over the University of Syracuse last Saturday before they start working out for their next tough game, against a Navy PT eleven from Melville, R. I., at Alumni Field next Saturday afternoon.

An aggravation of a leg injury suffered in the opener game against Harvard by tackle "Red" Lawler was the only serious blow to the Heightsmen. He makes the fifth first stringer who has been lost this season, although Henry Michaelewicz, who started at end against Harvard and who later left the team, has returned and is fighting to regain his starting wing berth.

Michaelowicz will have a tough fight on his hand to return to his old position as Moody Sarno has come up with Cyril Bowdering and Paul Murphy, who replaced the injured John Callahan, as pass snaggers and both boys, especially Murphy, have showed up well.

Sarno also unveiled a signal-caller who can throw a pass in Bob Owens, who took over Englert's post in the third quarter and sparked his teammates to two touchdowns and the victory. Up until the Syracuse game, Owens was third string quarterback, but he will see more action due to his creditable showing Saturday.

The Navy PT eleven will be made up for the most part by veterans who have seen action on the various battlefronts and who have now returned to this country for more training. On the PT roster are listed several ex-collegiate football greats and Torby McDonald, former Harvard backfield star, is expected to start next Saturday's tilt at one of the halfback posts.

O'Connor Seeks Four Straight

Patrick O'Connor, Irish mat star, will be seeking his fourth straight victory at the Arena Wednesday night when he faces Dr. Freddie Meyer, the wrestling dentist from Chicago, in the co-feature of Promoter Paul Bowser's weekly mat show.

Sharing top billing will be the match between Nanjo Singh, India, and Dr. John "Drop-kick" Murphy, Acton osteopath.

Two matches of the supporting card will complete the program. In the semi-final, a pair of former football stars, Zeus Wilcheski, Boston College, and Ed "Strangler" White, University of Alabama, will be clashing while in the opener, Ted Germaine, recently returned from the South Pacific, will square off against Sal Balbo, Quincy.

Oxford, Ohio
Oct 14, 1944

I, Harry Hoffman of Oxford, Ohio, do hereby solemnly swear that in June, 1922, when I was political organizer for the Kansas City, Missouri, jurisdiction of the Ku Klux Klan, I served as one of the five members of the special committee which took in as a member of the Ku Klux Klan Harry S. Truman, who is the Democratic party's present candidate for Vice-President of the United States. Other members of this committee which officiated when the oath of membership in the Ku Klux Klan was administered to the aforesaid Harry S. Truman were, to the best of my remembering, besides myself, A.P. Fowler, who since died; Spencer Salisbury and B.C. Rowe, all then living in Jackson county, Missouri. The oath was administered to the aforesaid Harry S. Truman by the Ku Klux Klan organizer, Gorse, and the ceremony was held in a room on the mezzanine floor of the Baltimore hotel, in Kansas City, early in the morning in June, 1922.

I hereby solemnly swear I have read the above and that it is true and in testimony thereof I have affixed my signature.
